ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

It gives me immense pleasure to thank all those for their encouragement, advice and support that made this research possible.

My heartfelt thank to management authority of Padmashree Dr. D.Y. Patil Institute of MCA for permitting me to pursue PhD. I am extremely grateful to the opportunity provided to me by Hon’ble Prof. Dr. Sudhir Meshram, Vice-Chancellor and encouragement by respected Dr. B. Hundiwale, BCUD Director and Dr. P. R. Choudhary, Dean, Faculty of Commerce & Management. I sincerely thank all the university authorities for rendering necessary support during the work and North Maharashtra University for allowing me to conduct this research work. I am grateful to Mr. S. R. Bhadlikar, Dy. Registrar, Law & RTI Section for guidance related to Environmental Regulations and Act.

It is my privilege to be indebted to my respected research guide, Dr. Sameer Narkhede who is constant source of inspiration and ideas. His encouragement, advice and expertise have made this research exercise, a truly learning one.

This research work is completed only because of his active role in guiding my research work. I am genuinely thankful to respected Dr. Sameer Narkhede for his able guidance.
I extend heartiest gratitude to Dr. Seema Joshi for her constant support. Special thanks to Mr. S. Adanaik who helped me in drawing out a logical inference.

My gratitude to Directors, Faculty, Staff and Students of selected professional institute in Pune who provided the time and information I needed for the research work.

I sincerely thank my respected parents, supportive husband Mr. Yogesh Suryawanshi, our lovely twins (Tanishq and Tanishka) and all family members who were unconditionally cooperated a lot and motivated during this journey of research.
