ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The successful completion of any work is incomplete without the mention of those people who make it possible. It is my proud privilege to have worked under the able guidance of Dr. P.K. Dhiman, Associate Professor and Head, Department of Management & Humanities, Sant Longowal Institute of Engineering & Technology, Longowal. I acknowledge with deep sense of gratitude and humility the inspiring and affectionate guidance rendered by him. His deep insight into the subject, perceptive observations, enthusiastic nature and keen interest has been of immense value in this research work at all stages. Besides this, the values of morality and humanity reflected by his personality are precious and will remain a constant source of inspiration and encouragement to serve the society throughout my life. I am also grateful to his wife Mrs. Reeta Dhiman who cherished me as a family member. Her constant encouragement and motivation to do the work in a better way is really mentionable.

I am highly grateful to Professor (Dr.) Sunil Pandey, Director, Sant Longowal Institute of Engineering and Technology, Longowal for providing me an opportunity to carry out the thesis work. I would further, like to thank Professor (Dr.) Dhiraj Sud, Dean, Academics for their valuable encouragement during my research work.

I am grateful to all the teachers of the Department of Management & Humanities, SLIET Longowal, especially Associate Professor Sanjeev Bansal, Professor P.K. Jain, Professor Jappreet Kaur, Associate Professor, Parveen Kaur Khanna and Associate Professor, Mahesh Arora, for their sincere advice, valuable suggestions and time to time help.

The enthusiasm and the focused approach of Professor (Dr.) G.S Batra, Head, Department of Management, Punjabi University, Patiala, helped me a lot in identifying the Chapters of the research study and areas that needed its attention. My special thanks to Dr. Amanpreet Singh, Department of Management, Punjabi University Patiala, for excellent source of advice and for their readiness towards listening to and discussing my problems and providing constructive feedback.

I express my deep gratitude to Sh. Ashok Kumar Meena, IAS, District Rural Development Agency, Fatehabad without his support it would have been very difficult to collect the primary data. My sincere thanks are also due to the Managers of various Lead Banks; staff of different District Rural Development Agencies, district Sangrur (Punjab) and district Fatehabad (Haryana) for providing me the required secondary data.

Special thanks are due to my little and sweet son Pranay, who has to sacrifice the mother’s love and care during the course of this study. I owe a great debt of gratitude to my mother-in-law, father-in-law, mother and father for their blessings and moral support.

One person who actually steer the boat and directed it to reach the destination is my husband Mr. Vicky Garg. Mere word of acknowledgement cannot express my deep sense of regards for his affectionate encouragement, valuable suggestions, moral support and constant help throughout the research work. Without his support, it would not have been possible for me to accomplish this work.

I extend my thanks to the librarians and library staff of SLIET Longowal, Punjabi University, Patiala; Panjab University, Chandigarh; Guru Nanak Dev (GND) University, Amritsar and Jawahar Lal Nehru (JNU) University, Delhi for granting me the permission to have an access to library facilities.

I am sincerely thankful to Dr. S. K. Garg, Former Professor and Head, Department of Zoology and Agriculture, CCS Haryana Agricultural University, Hisar for his valuable suggestions to improve the script.
I am especially thankful to the Aanganwadi workers of the surveyed villages who provided me very important information related to the self-help groups and also helped me to locate the respondents. My special thanks are also due to the respondents who spared their valuable time and provided me the necessary information required for this research work.

I am profoundly grateful to all my friends, relatives, colleagues and others who helped me directly or indirectly in the completion of this study.

Above all, I am thankful to Almighty who blessed me with the capability and strength to do this work.

I am also grateful to all my friends, relatives, colleagues and others who helped me directly and indirectly in the completion of this study.
