ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

“Acknowledgement although written at the end of the thesis work, but occupies the front page for reasons of their special significance. However proficient one may be in the art of expression; it is very difficult at times to find apt words for conveying one's gratitude.”

This work evolved with the efforts and support of several people and institutions. Foremost among them are my supervisor, Prof. (Dr.) R.K Gupta, Director Institute of Law, Kuruksherta University, Kuruksherta, who guided, supported and inspired me during this study. He initiated me into a world of ideas and thoughts, which not only shaped the work but was critical in bringing about a refinement in my thinking and ways of making sense. He was a source of encouragement and motivation from the very beginning and this study would have remained incomplete without his guidance. It is my pleasure to acknowledge my indebtedness and deep sense of gratitude to my respected research supervisor, without whose scholarly guidance and encouraging attitude, the work would not have been completed. His keen interest in the work gave me inspiration and generated confidence to complete the work.

I am grateful to Dr. Rajpal Sharma, Professor and Head, Department of Law, Kuruksherta University, Kuruksherta, who afforded me an opportunity to conduct research work on this topic of great contemporary significance in the criminal law.

I am highly thankful to my respected teachers Prof. (Mrs) Versha Razdan, Prof V.K. Razdan, Dr. Dalip Kumar, Dr. Anita Taneja, Dr. Sunil Yadav, Dr. Amit Ludari, Dr. Mahabir Singh, Dr. Ajit Chahal, Dr. C.R. Jiloa, and Dr. Preeti Jain Department of Law, Kuruksherta University, Kuruksherta, who provided me continuous encouragement besides the valuable advice, tendered by him during the discussion relating to the complex issues concerning topic of research.
I have no words to express my gratitude to Ho’ble Justice Suresh Kait, Delhi High Court, Prof (Dr.) Gurdip Singh Bahri, Vice Chancellor, RMLNLU, Lucknow, UP, Prof. S.N. Singh, Ex-Dean, Faculty of Law, University of Delhi, Delhi, Dr. V.K. Ahuja, Dr. Lokender Malik (IIPA), Mr. Purushottam Gupta (my school teacher) and specially to my mentor Dr. Mahabir Singh Kalon, for their timely and valuable encouragement and guidance.

I also register my deep gratitude to my work place, i.e., National Law University Delhi, New Delhi who provides me the best of the library and best of the research time to complete my research. I would like to express my sense of gratitude to Prof. (Dr.) Ranbir Singh, Vice Chancellor, National Law University Delhi, New Delhi, Prof. G.S. Bajpai, Registrar, National Law University Delhi, New Delhi, for encouragement during my research. I also register my deep gratitude to my colleagues at NLU Delhi, who always encourage and support me to complete this research work. I am also thankful to the dedicated staff of Justice TPS Chawla Library, National Law University Delhi, New Delhi which has been my main workshop for this work.

I express my sincere thanks to the ex-librarian Mr. R. S. Kundu and all the staff members specially to Mr. Ram Lal Mehra (Superintendent), Mr. Ram Prasad and Mr. Akhilesh Punia of Kuruksherta University, Kuruksherta (Haryana); Indian Law Institute Library (ILI), New Delhi; Indian Society of International Law Library (ISIL), New Delhi; Indian Institute of Public Administration Library (IIPA), New Delhi; Faculty of Law Library, University of Delhi, Delhi; Indian Council of Social Science and Research Library (ICSSR), New Delhi for their kind co-operation and assistance.

I must acknowledge my indebtedness to the authors of various books and research articles which I have quoted without their permission.

I am highly indebted to my father Sh. Jagdish Chander and my mother Smt. Birmati Devi who always gave me continuous encouragement and confidence at every stage of my life, and without their love I would never be able to complete such a cumbersome task. Coming to my in-laws, I highly indebted to my father-in-law Sh. Ishwar Singh and my mother-in-law Santosh Devi, and Ms. Kiran my sweet and caring sister-in-law and brother-in-law Dr. Narender Dhanda who always gave me continuous encouragement and confidence at every stage of my life, and without their love I would never be able to complete such a cumbersome task. I have no words to express my sentiments towards my beloved, Uncle and Aunty Mr. Rajpal Singh and Ms. Gulabo who always reminded and encourage me during my journey of life.

My special thanks are due to my brothers Ashok Kumar, Sushil Kumar and Purushottom Porria for their love, care and support which gave me courage and strength to stand against the tides. I am especially beholden to Mr. Jai Prakash Dubey (Indian Legal Service) and Neelkamal (Lok Sabah Secretariat) for their generous guidance and encouragement extended from time to time.

I am also thankful to my cousins Satish Kumar and Deepak Poria and my dear friends Ravinder Grower, Dr. Om Prakash, who always stood by me through the thick and thin, and always encouraged me at times when I felt low in life.

At the end I would like express appreciation to my beloved wife Neelam Rani, whom I see as a woman of rare gestures, rare qualities and exceptionally brilliant personality. I got her liberties and unbridled cooperation in completion of this whole research. No thanks however, to my second selves, my sons Pradyumna Gautam and Pradyunn Gautam the faces kept always cheering me up and give me strength to complete this cumbersome task.

Last but not the least; I would like to express my sincere thanks to all, who directly or indirectly helped me during my study and research.
