ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

This study on "Economics of Dairy Farming in Gujarat- A case study of Sabarkantha District" is submitted for the award of Ph.d. degree in Economics to the Sardar Patel University.

I express my abstruse sense of gratitude to Dr.H.F. Patel under whose guidance and supervision the present study is completed. In the real sense my guide Dr.H.F.Patel- reader, Economics Department, Sardar Patel University and Joint Director of Agro- Economic Research Center, Vallabh Vidhyanagar is a Friend, a Philosopher and Gardian and his suggestion kept me in good spirit. I should say "they have steard the ship clear of troubled water with no denst".

I express my Profound sense of gratitude to Dr.A.S.Patel, Head, Department of Economics, Saradar Patel University for providing needy help to me.

I am extremely thankful to Mr. Katarsingh and Mr. Tushar Shah (IRMA) for providing books and kind co-operation for this study. I cordially extend my gratitude to Dr. Ganatra serving in Animal hasbandry Department, Gujarat State.
I am also greatful to shri Tejas P. Shah, Mr. Gopalbhai Shah, Mr. Devendrabhai j. Shah, Miss Kalpanaben Christian, Mr. Pravinbhai Shah the owner of Nilpamac Computers Pvt Ltd. for helping me in the completions of Computer work. we received valuable help and co-operatoin from chairman, Sabar Dairy, Secretary of Primary milk Co-operative Societies and respondents for providing necessary data as and when required.

I am thankful to shri Manharbhai V. Desai Lecturer, Dhansura Arts and Commerce College for helping me in the Field Survey.

I owe my gratefulness to Shri W.J.Williams, Incharge Principal, Mahila Arts and Commerce College, Dhansura for giving cordial and emotional touch to the language used here.

I am heartly thankful to my husband and Children and my Parent to provide me necessary strong and steady support and moral encouragement for the completion of Ph.d. thesis.

(Ramaben J. Shah.)
Lecturer in Economics
Dhansura Arts and commerce college,
Dhansura.
Dist. Sabarkantha.