ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

First of all I am very much grateful to Goddess Modheshwari, who is kind enough and blessed me with patience and endurance so that I could complete my research work.

Mere thinking is one thing and taking the right direction for work is another, I am particularly indebted to my guide Prof. M. K. Patel, Head, Department of Business Studies, Sardar Patel University, Vallabh Vidyanagar who has shown me the path and inspired me through this attempt, I take this opportunity to express my hearty of gratitude and indebtedness to him.

I also owe a debt of gratitude to Prof. J. S. Panwar, Prof. H. J. Jani and Prof. R. P. Patel, Professor, G. H. Patel P. G. Institute of Business Management, Vallabh Vidyanagar and my friend of long standing Hemant Dave, Lecturer, History Department, Sardar Patel University, Vallabh Vidyanagar who encouraged me to complete the study.

I am also thankful to Prof. Sandip Bhatt and Prof P. K. Rathod, my guru in Business Studies department. I am also thankful to my colleagues at the MBA department for their co-operation and help.

I am also thankful to Mrs. Nayana and Mr. Dhaval, Librarians of G H Patel P. G. Institute of Business Management for their ungrudging help in the reference work.

I am thankful to the management of the textile units included in the study for agreeing to co-operate in giving me all the information I needed.

I also express my deep sense of gratitude towards my friends Mayur Navgale and Ashish Ingle for their inspiration, motivation and help at Surat.

My special thanks are to my father Chitranjan D. Mehta, beloved mother Niranjana C Mehta, elder brother Nilkanth who is working in Blueblend India Ltd., and to my wife Parul without their tremendous support, this work could neither have under taken nor pursued and completed. I also fondly remember my little daughter Himadri for energizing me whenever trouble came before me.
