CONTENTS

INTRODUCTION

1. Philosophy and Education
2. The significance of Indian culture
3. Present situation
4. Need for educational reconstruction based on moral and spiritual values.

THE PROBLEM AND PROCEDURE

1. Significance of the study
2. Scope of the study
3. Hypothesis
4. Procedure
5. Organisation of the thesis

REVIEW OF RELATED LITERATURE

(Section Two - Philosophical basis of Bhagavad Gita)

AN ANALYSIS OF PHILOSOPHICAL BASIS OF BHAGAVAD GITA

1. The concepts of self and universe
   1. The nature of Self
   2. Soul and Brahman
   3. Universe and Brahman
   4. The theory of evolution of universe
   5. Unity and diversity

2. Man's ultimate goal of life:
   1. Man's dilemma
   2. Detachment Vs. Escapism
   3. Cause of bondage
   4. The divine and demonic persons

3. Paths to reach the goal:
   1. The path of knowledge
   2. The path of action
   3. The path of devotion
CHAPTER

IV Psychological foundations:
1. Mind - body relation
2. The path of meditation
3. Right steps of Yoga
4. The achievement of Yoga
5. The doctrine of re-birth
6. Personality differences

V Value System

V SOME IMPORTANT DEDUCTIONS AND THEIR EDUCATIONAL SIGNIFICANCE

I Important deductions :
1. Self and universe
2. Man's ultimate goal of life
3. Paths to reach the goal
4. Psychological foundations
5. Value system
6. Yagna or sacrifice
7. Svadharma and Svabhava
8. Freedom of will
9. Gita's theory of personality
10. Yoga and Yogi

II Educational Significance
1. Education is complete development of man
2. Education according to one's own nature
3. Concentration and sublimation of instincts
4. Education based on personality traits
5. Inculcation of values
6. Education based on Dharma

III MEANING AND AIMS OF EDUCATION

INTRODUCTION

I Meaning of Education
1. Complete development of man.
2. Four stages of life
iv

Education for physical development
Education for mental development
Education for social efficiency
Education for character

II Aims of Education
1. Education for physical development
2. Education for mental development
3. Education for social efficiency
4. Education for character

VII TEACHER PUPIL RELATION :
1. Necessity of a teacher.
2. Qualities of pupil
3. Qualities of the teacher
4. Pupil-teacher relation

VIII THE EDUCATIVE PROCESS :
1. Understanding the child - first step in Education
2. Personality differences
3. Theory and practice
4. The educative process
5. Methods of teaching

IX CURRICULUM AND EVALUATION :
I Curriculum
1. Basis of curriculum
2. Knowledge for rational type
3. Action for active type
4. Devotion to duty
5. All sciences and arts - means to serve God.

II Evaluation :

X OBSERVATIONS AND SUGGESTIONS :
I Observations :
II Suggestions
(a) for improvement of Education:
1. The school
2. Teacher
3. Curriculum
4. Library
5. Text Books
6. Discipline
7. Cocurricular activities
8. Emotional integration
9. Religious education
10. Teacher education

(b) for further research

BIBLIOGRAPHY 432