ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I have undertaken the present study on "Farm Entrepreneurship and Agricultural Development - A Case Study of Bharuch District" in fulfilment of my doctoral dissertation of the Sardar Patel University, Vallabh Vidyanagar. It is true that the researcher carries on the entire burden of undertaking the research work of the doctoral level, but he receives the guidance/consultations, co-operation, suggestions, comments and even blessings and good wishes from the experts in the area, colleagues, friends, institutional agencies, elders and well-wishers, without which the research work may remain highly constrained. And, therefore, it would be in the fitness of things to take on record of the direct/indirect assistance provided to me by such persons/agencies, if not all but of some.

Professor H.G. Patel, my guide, has remained to me a friend, philosopher and guide. His constant watch on my work has kept me on the main track. I have been much benefitted by his suggestions and comments in my work at different stages. He has always remained ready without the constraint of time to guide and supervise my work. I am highly grateful to him.

Valuable guidance and consultation on methodology, schedule preparation and work analysis was provided to me by Dr. H. F. Patel, Reader in Economics. I take this opportunity to express my heartfelt gratefulness to him. Professor A.S. Patel, Head, Department of Economics, was always ready with smiling face to help me in my work. Dr. Dilip J. Chauhan, Shri Mohanbhai Patel, have also helped me, for which I owe my indebtedness to them.

Constant encouragement and co-operation was provided to me in my work by the college authorities. I may mention that former principal Dr. S.N. Bhardwaj and Principal N.B. Mahida have always provided me the necessary co-operation and help which made my thorny way smooth and easy for which whatever thanks I may express will be less. I am also grateful to Professor B.R. Goswami, Department of English and Professor S.C. Tailor, Head, Department of Economics, Arts and Science College, Rajpipla for their valuable help.

My parents, brothers and sister have express their blessing and good wish on me. This blessings have encouraged me to undertake the present work, for which I with two hands bow down with respect and devotion to them. Mrs. K.H. Mehta, my parenter in joy and tears, has always provided me support and vigour.
The library authorities of the Sardar Patel University, the M. S. University, Baroda. The Indian Institute of Management, Ahmedabad and the Gujarat Agricultural University, Anand Campus, have extended their helpful hand for which I am highly thankful to them. Last but not the least I cannot forget to mention the expert services rendered to me by Shri Paul L. Macwan and Shri Prakash P. Macwan who have carried out correct and neat typing work efficiently and promptly.
