ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

First of all I am very much grateful to God, who is kind enough and blessed me with patience and endurance so that I could complete my research work in Commerce subject.

I wish to express my deep sense of indebtedness and gratitude to my research supervisor Dr. S. K. Bhatt under whose inspiring and scholarly guidance, this thesis has been completed. The academic insights imparted by him equipped me with a sense of direction and confidence necessary to work on this subject, which otherwise would have been intractable. To work under his fastidious supervision has been an enlightening and enriching experience.

I am greatly indebted to Prof. V. G. Patel, Head of the Department of Business Studies, Sardar Patel University, Vallabhbh Vidyanagar, the very embodiment of guru, for his esteemed suggestion and timely encouragement and scholarly guidance in completing the thesis. I also express respectful regards for his inspiration and blessings during the academic year.
I am deeply grateful to my husband Mr. Roby O. Porathur, who helped me in every step of the way, at the cost of great inconvenience to himself and to our child Baby. Roselina, for her cooperation without them, my Research would have remained an inaccessible dream.

My heartful thanks are due to my younger sister, Ms. Sara Solomon and my colleague Ms. Sushmita Sanyal for their unflagging help.
