

33. Dinesh Kumar Singh (2012) “100% Financial Inclusion A challenging Task Ahad & Future Action” EPW.june 5

34. Ela R Bhatt (2006) “We are Poor but so Many: The Story of Self-employed Women in India” Oxford University Press, New Delhi Pp 231.

36. Eleventh Five Year Plan(2007) “Steering Committee on micro-finance and poverty alleviation” GOI

37. Fishers,Thomas and Srirama M.S (eds) “Microfinance and People’s Organizations in Beyond, Microcredit: Putting Development Back into Microfinance” Vistaaar Publications, New Delhi, 2002

42. GOI (2001) “Census of India Report 2001”

45. GOI,(2010) “NATIONAL RURAL LIVELIHOODS MISSION” Ministry of Rural Development “Framework for Implementation

46. Gopinath Shyamala (2006)“Inclusive Growth : Role of Financial Education” Address to Annual Bankers conference at Hydrabad on November 4

51. Hemalata C and Prasad,(2006) “National Study on Social Mobilization-Employment and Empowerment through SHGs”, NIRD

57. Institute of Management, Mumbai January 2012 (Management Account)

78. MoRD “Agenda Notes for CLCC Meeting on SGSY” 2007, p. 27

89. NSSO (1998a) “ Indebtedness of Rural Households” as on June 30, (Report No420), National Sample Survey organization

90. NSSO (2005) “Household Indebtedness’ in Indian” as on June 30, (Report No501)

91. NSSO, (2006) “Household Borrowingand Repayment in India During 1-7-02 to 30-6-2003” All India Debt and Investment Survey, NSS 59’th Round,

93. Pande R and et al(2004) “ Banking or the Poor Evidence from India” EEA Meetings

94. Papola T.S, (1993) “Anti Poverty and Special Employment Programmes in India Their Role and Effectiveness Under the Structural Adjustment”

97. Primal Krsen and Indrai saha (2012) “Net Banking on Financial Inclusion with an Indian perspective” (Management Account)
world Bank

world Bank, Washington

the National Council of Applied Economic Research (NCARER)

Weekly No 37.

ILO, November

Impact Study NABARD

Impact Evaluation” NABARD.

Monday, Jan 16

Study, NIRD

107. Rakes Mohan2006) Inclusive Growth : Role of Financial Deepening and Financial Inclusion, Address to Annual Conference at Hyderabad Banker on November 3

Inclusion Annual Bankers’ conference , at Hyderabad on Nov, 2006

109. Ramanathan A, Financial Inclusion in India through SHG-Bank Linkage
Programme and other finance initiatives by NABARD http/www .icrier.
org/pdf.22dec/ramanathanissuespaper.pdf.

112. Rangarajan, C (1996) “Rural India, the Role of Credit” Reserve Bank of India Bulletin, Reserve Bank of India, Mumbai

117. RBI (1956) “ All-India Rural Credit Survey” 1951-52, Vol 1 : Survey Report,

122. RBI(2009) “Report o the working group to review Business correspondent Model” August,

123. RBI (2009) “on Trend and Progress of Banking in India” Reserve Bank of India 2009-10, Reserve Bank of India, Mumbai

125. Rekha Mehta (2010) “Inclusive Growth why it is important” Southern Economist, August 2010 (P-48)

133. Reserve Bank of India (2006a) “Speeches published on Financial Inclusion and related Topics in its following, Monthly Bulletins during

137. Sameer Kochan,(2008) Speeding Financial Inclusion, Academic Foundation, New Delhi,

156

147. Sinha J Subramanium A (2007)The Next Billion, Customers : A Road Map for Expanding Financial Inclusion in India,

149. Statistics and Program me Ministry of Implementation, Government of India

152. Tekkakara Thanksy Francis Tekkakara,(2005) “Prompting and Nurturing SHGs; SGSY-an Analysis”, Seminar Paper Submitted for Ph.D in ITT Mumbai, Nov 2004

160. Usha Thorat (2006) “Financial Inclusion and Sustainable Development: Role of IT and Intermediaries” Address to Annual Bankers Conference at Hydrabad on November 4

