ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

The completion of this dissertation would not have been possible without the contributions of many people to whom I wish to express my sincere gratitude.

First and foremost, I would like to acknowledge my thesis advisory committee members. I am most thankful to Professor Jayasimha K.R. for his guidance, wisdom, and patience throughout my thesis work. As the chairperson of my thesis advisory committee his exemplary mentoring and enthusiasm for research will have an everlasting effect on me. I am also greatly indebted to Professor Ashish Sadh for his encouragement and support not only during the thesis work but throughout the Fellow Programme. I would like to thank Professor Ranjeet Nambudiri for his contributions to this research work. His quick observations and suggestions made a lot of difference.

I would also like to thank my thesis evaluation committee members, Professor Piyush Kumar Sinha, Professor Vikas Goyal and Professor Prashant Salwan, who provided encouraging and constructive feedback. I am grateful for their thoughtful and detailed comments.

Further I am grateful to Professor Ganesh Kumar Nidugala, Chair FPM, for his encouragement and support during the Fellow Programme. I would also like to thank the IIM Indore Learning Centre-staff and the FPM-office for their cooperation.

The data collection was an important part of my work and conducting the experiment successfully would not have been possible without the help of Dr. Jayant Negi and Dr. U.B.S. Chandrawat (SVCE Indore), Dr. Vaibhav Nema (IET DAVV Indore), Prof. Ram Gurjar and Prof. Girish Gaurav Soni (SGSITS Indore), Prof. Virendra Verma (SIMS Indore). It’s my duty to thank these gentlemen who helped me unconditionally and made it possible for me to achieve the targeted number of responses in time.

I would regret my doctoral years at IIM Indore unless I could meet nice and warmest friends. I would like to thank my senior and friend Kumar Kunal Kamal for his help in many different ways like developing the webpage required for the experiment in study, providing constructive criticism to the research work and guidance regarding research methodology during all the phases of the Fellow Programme. I would like to thank my friends and batch-mates Alok Kumar Singh and Krishna Chandra Balodi for their support during the joint study sessions while preparing for the term-examinations. I wish to thank my friends Piyush Kumar Singh, Abhishek Totawar, Anuj Sharma, Rajeev Verma, Ankit Sharma, Archana Patro, Hemant Shrivastava and Sriranga Vishnu for the fabulous time I spent with them during the four years of stay at IIM Indore. A special mention and thanks to my seniors and friends Anurag Kansal and Venkat Vijay for their presence and the companionship they provided.

I would like to thank my family members for their support during all times of my life. I wish to thank my father Dr. R.C.Billore for being the ultimate source of inspiration and knowledge for me, and for providing continuous encouragement in all my endeavors which has helped me achieve even the most difficult goals in my life. I would like to thank my mother Mrs.Madhubala Billore for her prayers and blessings for me. I owe my thanks to my sisters Mrs. Rashmi Barwe and Mrs. Reena Sadh for all their amazing support they provided to me during ups and downs of my life.

Especially, I owe my loving thanks to my wife Sonal and my son Agastya for their patient love and support. Without them, it would never have been possible for me to finish this work. Lastly, I thank God for His grace and giving me strength every day.
