Acknowledgement

Gratitude cannot be seen or touched; it can only be expressed, in words. I hope my words are enough to express the gratitude that I have in my heart for the following people.

First and foremost I would like to extend my sincere thanks to my Thesis Advisory Committee, Prof Sadh, Prof Jayasimha and Prof Gunta, who have been extremely helpful. They were supportive and encouraging, ruthless and highly demanding, all at the same time. They have been continuously pushing me to put my best foot forward, without which this Thesis would not have seen a productive outcome. A special thanks to Prof Jayasimha for being a true mentor. Sincere thanks also to my Thesis Examining Committee comprising of Prof Mulky (IIM Banglore), Prof Nargundkar and Prof Bhavani Shankar.

The reason I am writing this acknowledgement at all today is because of my husband, Anuj Kapoor. His words are enough to make me believe I can reach to the moon and back. He truly gets the best out of me. Changing job to a smaller city is always a risky thing to do but for him it was nothing against my aspirations. This Thesis is because of you Anuj. Thank you my dear husband.

To make my parents (Praveen and Alka Shrivastava) and sister (Noopur Chablani) proud has always been my biggest goal of life. This motivation has been my strongest driving force for the entire time spent here. Thank you for being there and relentlessly encouraging me.

I would also like to express my thanks to all my erstwhile bosses and seniors from my previous organisations, especially Preeti Nihalani (Cluster Head, Entertainment Networks India Ltd, Radio Mirchi) for providing me the encouragement to pursue PhD, despite of the fact that she was losing an employee.

Finally thank you to FPM office and IIMI Learning Centre for extending a helping hand whenever I needed one.

Payal S. Kapoor