ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I would like to sincerely thank my Supervisor, Dr. K. Sarukesi, Vice Chancellor, Hindustan University for his systematic guidance, constant persuasion and encouragement throughout my PhD candidature. His profound knowledge and expertise in this field and generosity have given me the audacity to explore new research directions and successfully complete this thesis. In particular, I appreciate his enthusiasm and endless amount of energy that inspired me to put maximum effort into research. I am also grateful to him for supporting me with his authoritarian and methodical reviews, for both research papers and this Ph.D. thesis, which helped me to complete this research work with utmost quality and satisfaction.

I wish to express my gratitude to Dr. Paul Rodrigues for being my initial Ph.D. mentor and guiding me at the early stage of my research studies, Dr. E. R. Naganathan (Professor and Head, Department of CSE, Hindustan University) for sharing his expertise to improve this research, Dr. Anitha S. Pillai (Professor and Head, Department of MCA, Hindustan University) for sharing her knowledge and triggered many fruitful thoughts on this work, and Dr. T. Ravi (Principal, Srinivasa Institute of Engineering and Technology) for his valuable suggestions which helped me to improve upon the critical aspects of this research.

I would also like to thank Dr. Rajkumar Buyya (Professor, University of Melbourne, Australia) for his valuable feedback and suggestions on this research work.
Special thanks to Mr. Ashok Verghese (Director, Hindustan University) for the extended financial support in carrying out this research and presenting this work at various International forums.

Finally, I am deeply thankful to my family and friends, for their inspiration and support during my research. Specifically, my wife Mrs. Revathy Madhan Kumar, who made my each day, each moment lovable and joyful and I could not have made it without her constant love and encouragement. Next is my son Jr. Krithik Madhan Kumar, who entered in our life as a God’s gift to our love and made each moment/second priceless. There is one more special person, who deserve something more than just thanks, he is Mr. Keerthi Balasundaram, my brother, research associate, supporter, friend, etc. who had lots of hope and belief on me, and helped throughout this research and supported reluctantly in many aspects to the successful completion of this research.

Above all, I am indebted to GOD, the Almighty for his divine blessings that has made it possible to complete this thesis successfully.
