Acknowledgment

It is a matter of great privilege to express my deep sense of gratitude to my supervisor Kavita Chakravarty for her guidance and encouragement.

I am grateful to Professor S.B. Dahiya for solving the problems which I have been facing from time to time during the course of the present study. I am also thankful to Dr. Anita Dagar for encouraging me and providing the facilities for carrying out the present study.

I am especially beholden to my parents for their encouragement and blessings, which enabled me to complete my work. I am highly indebt to Mr. Anil Kumar without whose help it would have not been possible to complete this study.

I would like to offer special thanks to research scholars of the Department of Economics for their cooperation and timely suggestions during the time of the study. My thanks are also due to the staff of the Department of Economics as well as the Central Library for their kind cooperation.
