ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Completing a task is never a one-man effort. It is often the result of valuable contribution of a number of individuals in direct or indirect manner that helps in shaping and achieving an objective. So, first and foremost, I would like to express my sincere thanks and gratitude to my supervisor, Prof. (Dr.) A.K Sharma. His passionate guidance, acute research vision, tremendous support, extreme patience, his depth and breadth of knowledge, has facilitated me to become a researcher. His unending encouragement, persistence and positive way of thinking has helped me to make the impossible possible. I am very thankful for his constant dedication and availability to me. His sincere and kind advice has helped me grow as a researcher, educator and an individual. I am very thankful to him for teaching me fundamentals of data structures as well as the fundamentals of life. As the Head of department of Computer Engineering, he has created an environment, which encourages work and research activities.

I am very much thankful to my colleague, Dr. Komal Bhatia for his invaluable input from different, more logic-centric perspectives and for fruitful discussions during my research. I would like to thank my colleagues Dr. C. K. Nagpal, Dr. Naresh Chauhan, Dr. Manjeet Singh, Dr. Ashutosh Dixit, Ms. Jyoti, Ms. Sonali Gupta, Ms. Neelam Duhan, Ms. Preeti Sethi, Ms. Rashmi Popli, Ms. Ashlesha, Ms. Amita and other faculty members at YMCA University of science and technology for their valuable technical discussions and cooperation.

Not forgetting to say thanks to the most important individuals in my life, my husband Nikhil and my charming children Parth and Kushagra, for reminding me all the times that there are other things out there than Hidden web. Last but not the least I would like to thank my parents for giving birth to me at the first place and supporting me spiritually throughout my life. I cannot end without thanking and appreciating my other family members and my friends for their constant encouragement and love I have relied throughout my research work.
