I would like to record my special thanks to Mr. G. Vijayakumar, Executive, Systems Division, SRA Systems Ltd. for his valuable help in the development of computer software for the analyses reported in this thesis.

My thanks are due to Dr. N. Sadasivam, Lecturer, Department of Statistics, for his kind help in the computation work, to M/s. Chandrakala Money & Capital Management Ltd., Chennai, for providing me the necessary data, and to Mrs. Kala Ravishankar, and Ms. K. Srilatha for their kind assistance in the literary collection.

Finally, but most importantly, I thank my wife Vijayalakshmi, my children Lavanya and Arun for their affectionate support throughout the difficult period of my research and writing, without which this thesis would never have been possible.
