ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

“Acknowledgement although written at the end of the thesis work, but occupies the front page for reasons of their special significance. However proficient one may be in the art of expression; it is very difficult at times to find apt words for conveying one’s gratitude.”

First of all, I am highly grateful to Almighty who gifted me an honest and pure heart whose invisible presence is partisan for me that produced scintillating power to ploy over the traffic situations, silently during my research period.

The words can never express my feelings of deep gratitude, indebtedness and reverence to my esteemed teacher and research supervisor Dr. Naresh Kumar, Professor, Department of Law, Maharshi Dayanand University, Rohtak, who has always shown an exemplary keenness and interest in perpetuating my research aptitude. ‘It is my pleasure to acknowledge my indebtedness and deep sense of gratitude to my respected research supervisor, without whose scholarly guidance and encouraging attitude, the work would not have been completed. His keen interest in the work gave me inspiration and generated confidence to complete the work.

I am grateful to Dr. (Mrs.) Promila Chugh, Professor and Head, Department of Law, Maharshi Dayanand University, Rohtak, who afforded me an opportunity to conduct research work on this topic of great contemporary significance in the criminal law.

I am highly thankful to my respected teachers Dr. K.P.S. Mahalwar, Dr. Preet Singh, Dr. Ateeque Khan, Dr. Sat Pal, Dr. S.S. Shilwan and Dr. Ved Pal Singh, and Ms. Sonu, Department of Law, Maharshi Dayanand University, Rohtak, who provided me continuous encouragement besides the valuable advice, tendered by him during the discussion relating to the complex issues concerning topic of research.

I have no words to express my gratitude to Mr. Rahul Sir who has made me to feel the law in my nerves and to live the law, as I was only reading and learning the law until I was taught by him. It is only from him that I had learnt how to do the threadbare interpretation of Bare Acts which will help me throughout my life.

I am also thankful to Dr. Suman Lata, Dr. Asha Sharma, Dr. Neena Vashist, Dr. Anju Khanna, and Dr. A.S. Verma, my pre-law teachers, for their timely and valuable guidance.

I express my sincere thanks to the librarian and all the staff members of M.D. University Library, Rohtak (Haryana), Indian Law Institute Library (ILI), New Delhi, Indian Society of International Law Library (ISIL), New Delhi, Indian Institute of Public Administration Library (IIPA), New Delhi, Indian Council of World Affairs Library (ICWA), New Delhi, Indian Council of Social Science and Research Library (ICSSR), New Delhi for their kind co-operation and assistance. I must acknowledge my indebtedness to the authors of various books and research articles which I have quoted without their permission.

I am highly indebted to my father Sh. Jagdish Chander (Retd. District Attorney) and my mother Smt. Palo Devi who always gave me continuous encouragement and confidence at every stage of my life, and without their love I would never be able to complete such a cumbersome task.

My special thanks are due to my elder angel sister Ms. Savina and my brother-in-law Mr. Dushyant Vishnoi, (Software Engineer, USA) for their love, care and support which gave me courage and strength to stand against the tides.
I am especially beholden to Mr. Srivastava Sir for his generous guidance and encouragement extended from time to time.

I am also thankful to my cousin Anuradha & Bhupinder and my dear friends Mainka, Sandeep, Nilesh, Anisha, Shveta, Rashmi & Samriti, who always stood by me through the thick and thin, and always encouraged me at times when I felt low in life.

Last but not the least, I am very thankful to my computer operator Mr. Rajkumar Pahwa, who took great pains to complete this work in short time.
