This thesis is the culmination of years of research, reading, fieldwork, writing and revising. Although, I have asserted that the work presented in this thesis is entirely my own, it is a delight to acknowledge here the important contributions that many people have made over the past few years for the completion of this work. First of all, I express my gratitude to my esteemed supervisor, Prof. (Dr.) Abha Chauhan, Head, Department of Sociology, University of Jammu whose scientific excitement, the inquisitive questions and encouraging attitude helped me to face all the problems of my research. I would like express my deepest appreciation for her constant direction, affectionate guidance and generous help. It was her meaningful academic contribution, patience, sheer faith and trust which have resulted in the form of this thesis. Thank you very much for giving me the privilege of learning from you. I extend my heartiest thanks to my former supervisor Prof J.R. Panda whose words of encouragement and sociological insight has helped me to start my research work in the initial stages. My regardful thanks to the other faculty members of the department specially Dr Vishav Raksha, Dr. Ashish Saxena, Dr. Suresh Babu, Dr. Hema Gandotra, Dr. Sapna Sangra and Dr. Shveta Sharma for their valuable suggestions time to time which has helped to give my work a meaningful shape. I accord my sincere thanks to non-teaching staff of the Department of Sociology. I sincerely thank Ms. Mittu Balowria, library in-charge and Mr. Vineet Bhat for extending the library support when ever required. I am also thankful to Mr. Suresh Gupta, Mr. Rajesh Sandhu, Mr. Pritam, Mr. Karan and Roshan of Department of Sociology for their cooperation.
I am highly thankful to the staff of Bhaderwah campus and Poonch Campus for their valuable support. I thank Ms. Gurmeet Kaur, Mr. Sunny, Mr. Sagir and Mr. Rafiq of Poonch Campus for their unconditional support during the field work. Thanks are also due to the staff of Bhaderwah Campus especially Mr. Krishan Lal and Mr. Rahat Mougal for working with me day and night and helped me to complete the tables and figures for the thesis. I extend my heartfelt thanks to all the scholars of the Department for their help and moral support. I wish to put on record my profound thanks, whom I consider my friend, teacher and guide, Dr. Nagendra Rao for his constant encouragement from the initial stages of research work to its completion. I am highly thankful to Prof. G.M Bhat, Rector, Bhaderwah Campus for his unconditional support. Without his co-operation, it was difficult for me to complete the work in time. My regardful thanks to my Father-in-Law Dr. Bhupinder Singh, Mother-in-Law Mrs. Harpal Kaur and Sister-in Law Dr. Avneet Kaur for extending all possible help and co-operation and always encouraging me to complete the research work in time. Thanks from the core are due to my sister Ms. Satveer Kour and her husband Mr. Jagmohan Singh for being my source of strength. I also thank my nephews Uttamvir Singh and Jagroop Singh for their smiling faces which used to refresh me at the times of tiredness from the research work. I wish to put on record my thanks for my brother Mr. Gurdeep Singh (Weldon), my backbone, for taking care of my responsibilities at home and keeping me free from all mental pressures which helped me to concentrate on my work. Due to the pressure of completion of the research work, I was not able to give due attention to my children Master Prabansh Singh and Miss Jasmeh Kour. They also kept patience and did not disturb me whenever I am seriously working on my research work. I thank both my kids for understanding the importance of their father's work and controlling their emotions which is not expected from small children. I am grateful to my wife Mrs. Manpreet Kaur, pillar of my strength, for extending whole heartily support and co-operation especially serving me tea and coffee at late hours. I thank her for reliving me from all the responsibilities of home and especially kids which helped me to concentrate on my work. Life is incomplete without you Manpreet. Thanks for being with me in every up and down. However, there are those whose spiritual support is even more important. Words fail to express the indebtedness to my parents-----S. Kirtan Singh and Mrs. Daljeet Kaur who have been a source of inspiration for me throughout my life and whose forethought and values tiled the way for a fortunate education and who gently offered counsel and unreserved support at each turn of the road.
