Acknowledgement

Looking back, I am surprised and at the same time very grateful for all I have received throughout these years. Pursuing a Ph.D. project is a both painful and enjoyable experience. It’s just like climbing a high peak, step by step, accompanied with bitterness, hardship, frustration, encouragement and trust and with so many people’s kind help. It has certainly shaped me as a person and has led me where I am now. Though it will not be enough to express my gratitude in words to all those people who helped me, it is a pleasure to thank the many people who made this thesis possible.

It is difficult to overstate my gratitude to my honorific supervisor, Prof. B.D. Yadav with his enthusiasm, his inspiration and his great efforts to explain things clearly and simply, he helped me to make research work fun for me. Throughout my thesis-drafting stage, he provided encouragement, sound advice, good teaching, good company and lots of good ideas. I would have been lost without him.

I am deeply grateful to Prof. Amar Singh, Head of the Department, for his detailed and constructive comments, and for his important support throughout this work. I also extend heartfelt thanks to all the teaching and non teaching staff of History Department for their valuable suggestions and cooperation.

I owe my most sincere gratitude to the many people who have taught me History and shown the seeds of interest deep into my heart.

My work greatly improved thanks to the comments of my friends who helped me get through the difficulty times, and for all the emotional support they provided.

My father and father-in-law always backed me during research period whereas my mother and mother-in-law gave blessing for such a difficult project.

My elder brother, Vinod Kumar who is doctorate in Hindi always shared his experience and influenced my research work as better. My younger brother, Kulvir always inspired me to be vigil and disciplined throughout. My sister-in-laws always came out with positive suggestions which motivated me to work harder and do my best. My loving thanks are due to my nephew, Vaibhav and niece Disha whose innocent talks always brought smile on my face.

Last but not least, I am greatly indebted to my adorable wife, Indu. My wife who is also my best friend stood firm beside me against all the odds. Her unconditional love & support, utmost care and skills of time management have enabled me to complete this Ph.D. project. And how can I forget the contribution of my doting son, Shashwat, who is a real gem and a remedy to any kind of distress.

I finish with a feeling of gratitude for all those who became a tower of strength for me during all these years.
