ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

In the name of almighty who created all the Human beings from Single Soul, men and women. ‘Iqra Bismi Rabikal lasi Khaleq’ Read in the name of thy Lord’.

My first thoughts naturally go to all the scholars who have helped me in making this research work possible, to my guide Prof A.G. Khan (Director Board of Colleges and University, Dr. Babasaheb Ambedkar Marathwada University, Aurangabad) for his patient guidance, scholarly support and for his availability whenever necessary. He has always been an angelic figure, who has not only been a guide but also a good friend, philosopher and scholar in the concerned subject, who sowed the seeds and the fruits are seen everywhere in the academic world.

My other mentors who have constantly advised me and showed me ways and means to overcome the confusing and baffling problems that I faced during my work, who are renowned scholars in the field of post-colonial studies are Prof Jasbir Jain, (Jaipur), Prof Ajaz Ahmad, Prof R. J. Bhongale, Dept of English, Mumbai University, Dr. Janardhanan Sir (Program Officer, American Centre, Mumbai) to them all I am grateful.

I must thank Dr. Kavery Nambisan and Mr. Vijay Nambisan for their remarkable range of learning and fine literary sensibility, soft-spokenness, generosity and concern have helped me and supported me in carrying out the work. And also for organizing an interview at her residence at Lonavala.

I am again indebted to Meher Pestonji who has been for me a great source of scholarly enlightenment by answering my queries with amazing alacrity and openness. I am grateful to her for giving me a chance to hold an interview at Radio Club Mumbai. Her family, specially her daughter, Nahid and Nishat and grandchildren Farooq and Farha were of great support to me during Meher Pestonji’s absence. I cannot forget their friendly attitude.

I cannot forget Dr. Babasaheb Ambedkar Marathwada University Aurangabad for granting me financial support of Rs. 20,000/- and I am thankful to U.G.C. New Delhi for their financial support of Rs. One Lac forty thousands (1, 40,000) as a minor research project. My deep debt of gratitude goes to Prof Hameed Khan, Head, Dept of English BAMU A’bad., Prof Khimbhaune, Prof K. G. Ranveer, Prof Satish Deshpande, Prof Mable Fernandes, Dr. Vaishali Pardhan, Assistant Prof B.P. Bhosale, Assistant Prof Mustejeeb Khan, and Assistant Prof Anand Ubale.

My heartfelt thanks go to Prof Shaikh Samad, Vasantrao Naik College for his valuable support. I also extend my thanks to Dr. Mr. and Mrs. Inamdar, Dr. Farhana Khan and Dr. Nilofer Shakir for their support. I owe special thanks to my colleagues from Mahila Kala Mahavidyalaya, Vasant Rao Naik College, A’bad, Vivekanand College of Arts, Science and Commerce, A’bad. I am also thankful to Tasnim Hyder Shaikh, Librarian, Podar International High School, Mumbai for her help in getting Farida Karodia’s texts from South Africa.

I cannot forget Dr. A. G. Khan’s members of the family especially, his wife (late) and his daughters who have been like more than my kith and kin. I remember my teacher specially Rajan Shinde, my friends from Nanded SRTMU, Dr. Gacche and Dr. Dhange. Similarly I can’t forget, Prof. Mahajan, Dr. IBP Mahila Kala Mahavidyalaya, and my friends Rasheeda, Uzma, Shaikh Sohail, Farhana, Noushin and Nafisa for their valuable support.

I express my high sense of gratitude to my family member, my parents. Prof. S. V. Pathan (Ret Vice Principal Aurangabad College for Women) who always asked me to be bold in what I stand for. Noorjahan Pathan my mother, my brothers Feroz Khan (Asstt. Prof. Milind College of Arts A’bad) Mr. Mehraj Khan (Businessman) Dr. Sartaj (M. D. Radiology) who made me bold enough to face the challenges of the world. Dr. Minhaj (M. D. Physiology) my sister Dr. Saira Bano (MBBS-DCP Pathology), her husband Mr. Tanveer (Asst, Manager, Shipping Co-Operation of India), my uncle T.N. Pathan (Divisional Commissioner, Palghar, Mumbai) And my sisters in law Taslim, Afreen, Dr. Saba (Dentist) and Asiya for their support. And I can never forget to thank my grand mother Shaikh Rabiya who loved and cared for me.

I cannot find words to express my feelings for my husband Prof. Shaikh Latif (Maulana Azad College, A’bad) for nurturing my dreams and making me to believe in me. He has been a stony-hold and constant source of inspiration all through my academic voyage. Had he not supported me this thesis would not have seen the light of this day and I proudly say that he is the man behind my success. He has also made me bold enough to face the challenges of the world. How can I forget the children of our family especially Sana, Saba, Atif, Mustafa, Adil, Fiza and Afsha for their love and concern all through my work. And my parents-in-law Rashida Mummy, father-in-law Sk. Hamid, brother-in-law Younus and Aslam, sister-in-law Sk. Parveen and Nadera. And all those whose names I mentioned to forget.

Finally, I thank Anil Kamble, Sabdar and Shaikh Sajed for computing and typing my work in time.

Place: Aurangabad
Date:

Mehrunnisa S. Pathan