ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I heartily acknowledge my deep indebtedness to my mentor Prof. S.J. Singh, Dean, School of Humanities and Social Sciences, Department of Psychology, Dr. Harisingh Gour Vishwavidyalaya, (A Central University), Sagar, (M.P.), India, for moulding my research skills, implanting subject knowledge, and for his compassionate guidance and expert supervision rendered in progression of this research work. Without his detailed critical reviews, precious suggestions and constant encouragement – when I was losing track – it would have been impossible for me to sustain progress and complete this research investigation. Thank you Sir, for bringing my boat on shore.

I am grateful to Prof. V. Srivastava, Head, Department of Psychology, at the University, for granting me all possible help to conduct this research.

Incredible thanks go to Dr. Gyanesh Kumar Tiwari, and Shri Sanjay Kumar, Asstt. Professors., Dept. of Psychology, at the University, for their valuable help in statistical analyses and heartfelt and heart to heart support; Particularly, my appreciation goes to Dr. Ashima Srivastava, Sr. Clinical Psychologist, and Dr. Rajkumar Srivastava, Sr. Psychiatrist, Department of Mental Health and Behavioural Sciences, Max Balaji Hospital Padpadganj, Delhi (India); who facilitated in data collection, diagnosis, psychotherapy and gave me chance for Internship in Cognitive Behaviour Therapy. Mr. J.M. Revar, Ex. Asstt. Prof., of Clinical Psychology, for sharing his diagnostic and CBT knowledge.

A due mention is made of Prof. Ashum Gupta, Dept. of Psychology, Delhi University, who permitted me to attend CBT classes; Prof. J.B. Singh, Ex. Head, Dept. of Clinical Psychology, IHBAS, Delhi, for allowing me to use library.
I would ever remain appreciative of my valuable patients (subjects) who trusted me and provided loaded psycho-social information, data and follow-up support in this research; without them there is vacuum in the research, hence their presence is constantly heard in this thesis.

Dr. Raghunath Prasad Saket, Asst. Prof., Delhi University, for providing me economic and academic support, Shri Panchamtal (Ex. Principal), his always academic support and Shri Pramed Kureel, Writer and Producer, who showed me English writing and reading skills.

Family and Friends’ support in my academic trajectory is worth appreciating, they are: Smt. Kalawati Saket, elder sister, who relentlessly advocated my higher education and supported throughout; Shri Santlal Saket, who stood beside my study continuously; Sri Raghvendra Kumar Saket, and my elder sister Seeta Saket, who envisioned my knowledge and career building; Brothers : Ramsiromani Saket, and Rahul Kumar Deepankar, for their psycho-economic support; Late Rajesh Kumar Saket, and Ramadhar Choudhry (Ramji) whose spirits still echo around me to become good Clinical Psychologist; Neelam(Bittu) Poonam, Reeta, Neeraj and Rajkumar, Geeta Neelam, Louis Rajkumar and Jeevan Kumar Mallah, L.P. Saket and Smt. Kamla Saket who stayed in support.

My friends, viz., Indrabhan Prasad Saket, Rajendra, Dr. Gautam Kumar, Bhupati, Sanjeev, Ashok, Rinku, B.N. (S. Kumar), Pushpendra, Narendra (Lalgaw), Gurucharan, Rajkumar (Bablu) all of them are duly noted for their support and encouragement.

Finally, an incredible gratitude is offered to my father Late Shri Jagpati Prasad Saket (Ex. Head Master) and my mother Smt. Sundari Devi, who always - despite adverse circumstances - trusted and motivated me to go ahead to achieving academic ascendance.

Sagar (M.P.), India

Prabhunath Prasad Saket

Dated: 14 September, 2013