ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

First and foremost, praises and thanks to God, the Almighty, for His showers of blessings throughout my research work. This thesis would not have been successfully completed without the guidance and the help of several people who contributed their valuable assistance during the preparation and the development of the thesis work. I would like to express my deep and sincere gratitude to my Research Supervisor, Dr. F. Ramesh Dhanaseelan, Prof. & Head, Department of Computer Applications, St. Xavier’s Catholic College of Engineering, Nagercoil for providing me with an excellent research atmosphere and freedom to work on the research problems and also for the patient guidance that helped me raise my solid steps in a competitive research area like data mining. It was a great privilege, and pleasure to work under his guidance. I am extremely grateful to him for the successful completion of this thesis.

I would like to thank Professors Dr. M. K. Jeyakumar, Additional Controller of Examinations, NIU, Dr. A. Shajin Nargunam, Director (Academic Affairs), NIU and Dr. Julia Punitha Malar Dhas, Prof. & Head, Dept. of CSE, NIU for their valuable suggestions and encouragements throughout the course of my Ph.D. work. I would like to thank Dr. M. Sivapragash, Director (Research), NIU for his guidance, support and help during my work.

I am grateful to Prof. K. Pazhani Kumar, Dept. of CS, S.T. Hindu College, Nagercoil for the useful discussions I had with him. I thank my colleagues at work and my friends for their help to complete this work. I extend my special thanks to Dr. M.L. Narayanan, Director (Grievance Cell), NIU, Dr. M. Subramania Pillai, Dept. of English, PG Extension Center, MS University, Nagercoil, Dr. C. Christopher Columbus, Prof. & Head, Dept. of CSE, PSNCET, Tirunelveli and Prof. M. Deepa Lakshmi, Dept. of CSE, PSNCET, Tirunelveli who helped me shape and fine-tune the thesis.

Finally, I thank my family members especially my husband, son and parents. They have been a source of continuous support and inspiration. I thank all the people who have supported me directly or indirectly to complete this research.
