Acknowledgements

This thesis has been in the making for the last six years. Many people have contributed over the years in variety of ways towards its coming. My supervisors Prof. P. Balasamy and Prof. J. Josephine have been constant sources of confidence and encouragement. I thank both of them for their warmth and support.

Sanjay Palshikar invested a great deal of his intellectual energy and zest over this exercise. He has been involved in shaping the dissertation at crucial stages. Chitra Panikkar, Smriti, Sharmila and Bindu read several drafts of my thesis and made valuable comments. Shalini, Rajesh, Phanider and Sanjeev made the task of editing easy.

Shobha, Naresh, Laxminarayana and Shivaram Padikkal have been extremely supportive towards this venture. Ratnam and Kanchan have made my task much easier by providing me with access to a lot of research material. So also Maithreyi, Vijay, Tharakeshwar and Ramesh. Sheetal and Clement have seen the waxing and waning of my research moods and has seen to it that my idiosyncrasies don’t get an upper hand.

I would also like to thank Varadarajan and Ravi of Indira Gandhi Memorial Library, University of Hyderabad for their help.

The staff at D.H. Archives was extremely helpful. I also thank the University of Hyderabad for providing study leave to complete the dissertation.

Finally, I would like to thank my parents who have stood by me during the entire exercise.
