ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The present work is an attempt to explore the various dimensions of folk arts in Coastal Karnataka. This work will not complete if I do not acknowledge persons who guided and helped me throughout my research study. First and foremost I express sincere thanks and deep sense of gratitude to my research supervisor Prof. Vighnesh N. Bhat, Professor, Department of Journalism and Mass Communication, Kuvempu University for his valuable guidance, suggestions and intensive involvement that have enabled the present work to materialise. I also remember him throughout my life for his help and guidance in my career.

I am very grateful to Honourable Vice Chancellor Prof. B.S. Sherigara, former Registrar Sri Praveen Chandra Pande and present Registrar Sri Shivanna, for giving me an opportunity to serve and do research in this University.

I acknowledge with sincere thanks and gratitude, Prof. Rajendra Chenni, Chairman, Dept. of Journalism and Mass Communication for his help and suggestions throughout my research work and career.

My sincere gratitude to Prof. K.V. Nagaraj, Professor, Dept. of Mass Communication and Journalism, Mangalore University for his valuable guidance throughout my study, research work and career. I also remember all my teachers who taught me and shaped my life from primary education to post graduation.

My grateful acknowledgement to Dr. Sumitra Bhat for her great concern and encouragement towards my research work with affection. I remember with affection my colleagues, Sri Sathy Prakash, Sri Dhanya Prasad, Kum. Mamatha, Kum. Srilaxmi, Sri Sampath, Sri Virupaksha Havelkar, Sri Ashwath Narayan, Sri K.C. Manjunath and all my students. They rejoiced me with their encouragement and valuable cooperation.

I owe my indebtedness to my friend Sri Harish Shetty Gardady who has special place in my life. He has made me to get higher education and changed my career. I thank all persons who helped and all institutions that gave financial assistance throughout my study and research work.

I express my sincere gratitude to the most significant participants during my fieldwork of this research work, both the performers and audience of the following six talukas: Mangalore, Bantwal, Udupi, Kundapura, Honnava and Karwar. It is beyond words to express my gratitude to my friends and well wishers, who helped me during my fieldwork. I owe my indebtedness to Maharudra, Sangeetha Kalkur, Savitha, Anuradha, Prathapachandra, Prashanth, Yashavanth Agari, Manjunath Baindur and family, Vishnu Hegade and family, Ashok Bhat, Gangadhara Pajeeru, Gangadhara Gowda and family, Jagadeesh, Yekker Umesh Rao, Narayana Prabhu, Krishnappa and others. The thesis would not have taken shape without their help and cooperation.

My sincere thanks to Dr. Ramakrishnegowda, Librarian and staff in library of Kuvempu University and also to Sri Venkatesh, Librarian of RRC, Udupi for their assistance in my research study. My thanks to all teaching and non-teaching staff of the University who helped and encouraged me.

I thank Basavesh for printing interview schedules and Anvar for the excellent formatting and printing of this thesis and also Kashi for neatly binding the thesis.

I express my gratitude to my parents, Sri. Muttayya Poojary and Smt. Varjaa, brothers, Harish, Girish, Yogish and sister, Triveni, who encouraged me throughout the study. I remember with affection my grand mothers Late Sankamma and Late Duggamma who dreamt of my bright future and left us very early. Finally, I owe my heartfelt thanks to my fiancée Kum. Vinaya, who has been a friend, guide for inspiring all along with me.
