ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

No research work grows into being by the lone effort of its author. This work is no exception and bears an imprint of many persons. I thank all those persons who who directly and indirectly helped me in the completion of present study and encouraged and inspired me in carrying on this study.

I had a keen desire to enhance my education qualification ever since & passed M. Phil and was searching for a really inspiring competent guide under whose capable tutorship I could take a plunge into research. My research comes to fraction when I met Professor Ashok Kumar, Department of statistics, M.D. University, Rohtak. In a short time I was convinced that Prof. Sahib could not only guide me but also support me like a pillar of strength whenever I wavered in my endeavors. I started research in March 2007 under the stewardship of Prof. Ashok Kumar in right earnest. As is usual for beginners I too had period of dejection but Prof. Ashok Kumar was always around to pull me out of it and put my efforts back onto rails. I worked on steadily. He infused into me fresh enthusiasm and imparted strength. I shall ever remain indebted to him.

My sincere gratitude also extend to all teaching members of Department of Statistics, M.D. University, Rohtak, for enabling me to grasp basics of statistics, which helped me throughout this work. In this context, I would like to thank Dr. (Mrs.) Shashi Bahl Prof. & Head, Department of Statistics M.D. University Rohtak, Dr. (Mrs.) Madhulika Dube, Professor, Department of Statistics M.D. University Rohtak, Dr. (Mrs.) Preeti Gupta, Professor, Department of Statistics M.D. University Rohtak Dr. S.C. Malik, Professor, Department of Statistics M.D. University Rohtak, Dr. (Mrs.) Ratna Raj Lakshmi, Reader, Department of Statistics M.D. University, Rohtak,

I am extremely thankful to Prof. Madhu Gupta Department of Education, M.D. University, Rohtak for her co-operation and suggestions whenever I needed.

My special thanks are also conveyed to the non-teaching members of Department of Statistics, M.D. University, Rohtak. They have always been with me and helped whenever required.
Dr. Sanjeet Singh and Dr. Nitin Bhardwaj, helped me in making graphs on the computer whenever I approached him. A lot more individuals, friends, my parents and members of my family especially my mother Smt. Prem Kumari, My brother Sunil Kapil & My wife Mrs. Neetu helped & supported me.

Last but not least, I acknowledge the contribution of those who inspired me in the course of my research.
