ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

No researcher exists in a vacuum; no researcher is untouched, in one way or another, by family, friends and associates, besides the overriding supervisor. While it is not possible to name all those who helped make this study possible, it would be remiss of me not to acknowledge the support and assistance of several special individuals.

Foremost is Dr P. N. Ramanl, my supervisor to whom my obligation is unique. He not only started me off with a comprehensive survey of what needed to be done, but has shared throughout in every detail of its execution, fertile in suggestion, ruthless in criticism, and vigilant in the detection of error.

I am very grateful to Dr P. Marudanayagam, Professor and Head, Department of English, Pondicherry University, who has been infinitely helpful. I gratefully record my obligation to all the other staff members in his Department for their encouragement, assistance and advice.

Thanks are due to Prof. N. Santhalingam, Head, Department of English and other colleagues of mine at Tagore Arts College, Pondicherry, in particular to Mr R. Swaminathan, Mr M. Nazir Ali and Ms K. C. Asha—all of whom have been extremely supportive.

I should like to express my indebtedness to Mr L. S. Ramalai, Librarian and his staff at the CIEFL, Hyderabad for being ever ready with bibliographical information in person and also by the regular posting of CIEFL DOC: ELT.

The following warm people have given me so much of themselves—personally, professionally, or both—that this study is far better than it could possibly have been without them:

Mr C. George Gunapal, Head, and other lecturers, Department of Physics; Mr M. Rajasandian, Head, and other lecturers, Department of Computer Science, Tagore Arts College, Pondicherry.
Ms M. D. Lalithakumari, Head, and other lecturers, Department of English; Dr S. Chandra, Head, and other lecturers, Department of Maths; Mr S. Thanigachalam, Head, and other lecturers, Department of Corporate Secretaranship, Bharathidasan Govt. College for Women, Pondicherry.

Dr C. V. Venkatasubramanian, Head, Ms R. Jayanthi, and Ms S. V. Vijayalakshmi, Lecturers, Department of English; Dr A. Tinabaye, Lecturer in Chemistry, Arignar Anna Govt. Arts College, Karaikal.

Dr R. Sundaram, Head, and other lecturers, Department of English, Avvalayar Govt. College for Women, Karaikal.

Rev. Fr M. A. Ratchakar, Principal; Mr I. Antony Joseph Jeyadas, Senior Lecturer; Mr R. Basakaran and Mr V. R. Suresh Kumar, Lecturers, Department of English, St Joseph's College of Arts and Science, Cuddalore.

Mr D. Sakthignanavel, Lecturer in Physical Education, Pondicherry University; the staff at Pondicherry University Library. Mr G. Arunachalam of Pranav Systems, "Gokulam", Rainbow Nagar, Pondicherry for his meticulous computing.

My debt of gratitude is also due to the students-respondents for their insight, enthusiasm and support. There are many more individuals who have helped me in various ways and they are too many for me to name them all. I feel indebted to all of them.

A research like this makes in-roads on one's home life and demands a certain sacrifice. For her unfailing support, balance, and timely shots of realism, I owe a great deal of debt to my wife, Dr A. Vijayalakshmi.

A word of special thanks to my children, Sindhu, Anand and Arun, who accepted, without apparent resentment and with barely audible complaint, my complete self-isolation while working on this project.

Finally, I dedicate this work to my parents who brought me into this beautiful world of ours and who are ever gracious to me.
