ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

First and foremost, I would like to thank Dr. V.S. Wangwad for his invaluable advice and guidance throughout the completion of my thesis. Thank you for the hours, days, weeks, months, and years that you have given me. Thank you for being encouraging and supportive throughout everything, especially during the difficult times.

I would also like to say thank you the most important people in this thesis, the participants and kind souls who helped me to collect my research data, Dr. Anbarian, thank-you for your expertise, guidance, patience and friendship. For everything else that does not appear in these pages.

I would also like to thank my close family: Mum and Dad, Mother and Father in law, thank-you for always believing in me.

I must acknowledge my wife and best friend, Honey, without whose love, encouragement and editing assistance, I would not have finished this thesis. Thank you for putting the stressful times in my life into perspective.

To all my friends, thank you for your continued support and encouragement.

I would like to thank all the staff at the department of Physical Education, University of Pune for creating a positive learning environment, and also the participants who made this thesis possible.

Finally, I would like to thank Dr. B. R. Shejwal Head of Department of Physical Education for all helps and guidance.
