ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I am extremely thankful first to the Almighty God for His Divine Grace throughout.

This work has been carried out under the sympathetic teachings and kind supervision of Dr. Naveen Sharma, reader of Economics, Department of Economics, Panjab University, Chandigarh. Indeed, the words are unable to express my inner feelings and sense of indebtedness to him for his devotion, affectionate encouragement and noble guidance provided to me during the course of this study. Without his able supervision the work might not have been completed as well as it is now.

I am also thankful to Faculty members of the Department for their valuable help in calculations. I would like to express my thanks to Mr. Viney Tomer for he worthwhile help in computer works. I am thankful to staff members of the Department of Economics, and the librarians of the Department and the University for their generous help anytime required.

I am deeply indebted to my parents who encouraged me to start and continue this work.

Sincere thanks to my husband Mr. Viney Vaid and my dearest son Jai, who patiently suffered all the difficulties and gave me constant encouragement and support to carry out this research.

Finally I would like to express my thanks to all my friends who have contributed in some form in this research work.
