ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The researcher expresses his gratitude to his supervisor Dr. (Mrs.) RAJASEELI JOHN, the Principal and Secretary of the Y.M.C.A. College of Physical Education, Madras for the excellent guidance at all stages of the study.

He offers his sincere thanks and appreciation to KRISHNAPILLAI MURUGAN and his family members for having provided the necessary information in their interviews with him.

The investigator is deeply indebted to all the respondents who have responded promptly to the opinion questionnaires.

The investigator acknowledges his profound gratitude to Mr. M. DEVARAJ and Mr. D. LOUIS JOSEPH CHANDRA, Senior lecturers in English, at Loyola College for their assistance in reading through the manuscript and making the necessary corrections.

His thanks are also due to Dr. B. CHANDRASEKAR, Senior lecturer in Statistics at Loyola College, Madras in helping him with the statistical analysis part of this dissertation.

The investigator is grateful to the Department of Psychology, Womens’ Christian College, Madras and the Loyola Institute of Business Administration for their ready assistance and guidance.

SATHIYASEELAN