LIST OF TABLES

TABLE NO. CONTENTS OF THE TABLE

2.1 Number of non-government companies at work and their paid-up capital

2.2 Sources of Funds for the Medium and Large Industries - 1971 to 1988

2.3 Pattern of financing of the Private corporate sector with loans and stock issue

2.4 Growth of Corporate Savings - 1971 to 1988

3.1 Table of corporate and personal tax rates 1958-1991

3.2 Debt- incentive tax ratio - 1971 to 1991

3.3 Non-debt tax shelters (Depreciation and investment allowance) as sources of funds - 1971 - 1991

3.5 Sources of Internal and External funds - 1971-1991

3.6 Debt-Equity ratio of Medium and Large Industries - 1971-1991

3.7 Effect of inflation on the proportions of internal and external funds - 1971-1991

3.8 Real and Nominal rates of interest on various Sources of funds - 1971-1991

3.9 Investment pattern of householder savings

3.10 Ratio of Sectoral borrowings to total borrowing of domestic sectors
3.11 Convertible portion of partially convertible debentures - sample statistic

3.13 Variation in monthly share price indices of Reserve Bank of India - 1971-1990

3.14 Influence of the macro-level indicators on debt-equity ratio - 1971-1990

4.I A Means of variables - Basic Industries

4.I B Means of Variables - Agro-based Industries

4.I C Means of variables - Engineering Industries

4.I D Means of variables - Chemical Industries

4.I E Means of variables - Textile Industries

4.VIII A Regression Output - Aggregate pooled data

4.VIII B Regression Output - Aggregate pooled data with dummy variables
5.1 Relative importance of financial planning principles of responding companies

5.2 Relative importance of reasons for using varying proportions of debt and equity in the capital structure by responding companies

5.3 Reasons for going for public issue of equity for the first time

5.4 Relative importance of capital structure model inputs and/or assumptions in governing financing decisions