TABLE OF CONTENTS

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

CHAPTER – I : INTRODUCTION ... 1 – 39

- Need for the study and Limitations of study.
- Review of literature
- Objectives of the study
- Methodology

CHAPTER – II : HISTORY OF CHILD LABOUR IN PROJECT AREA AND NEAR BY AREA AND DETAILS OF SLATE MANUFACTURING ... 40 – 56

- Back-ground of child labour. Physical and demographic back ground of project area.
- Extent of child labour at Markapur slate mines.
- Manufacturing process at factories and house hold units.
- Manufacture of card board, enamel and plastic writing slates.
- Manufacturing of design slates.
- Hazardous occupations-Slate manufacturing.
- Nature of operations arising from owner-ship and lease rights of mines.

CHAPTER – III : MAGNITUDE OF THE PROBLEM, REASONS OF CHILD LABOUR AND IMPACT ... 57 – 86

- Magnitude of the problem.
- Poverty and Backwardness.
- Unemployment and Exploitation.
- Income strategies, economic self interest of companies and owners.
- Local culture.
- Literacy and Education.
- Prominent causes contributing child labour.
- Effect of child labour on child-hood.
- Child labour and education policy in India.
- Worst forms of child labour.
- Hazardous processes and Hazardous occupations.
CHAPTER – IV : CHILD LABOUR LEGISLATIONS, ... 87 – 124
CONVENTIONS AND LEGAL ASPECTS OF CHILD LABOUR

Constitutional provisions relating to child labour.
I.L.O. on child labour.
U.N-declaration on the rights of the child.
UNICEF on child labour.
Legislative enactments.
Child labour (Prohibition and Regulation) Act 1986.
National Policy on child labour.
Implementation of various legislations related to slate mining and industry and reasons for not being implemented.
Legal aspects of child labour and Supreme Court on child labour.
Need for modification in constitutional and legislative provisions related to child labour.
Policy measures requiring attention and adoption of a new national policy on child labour.

CHAPTER - V : PROGRAMS AND EFFORTS TO ... 125 – 160
ERADICATE CHILD LABOUR

NGOs for the eradication of child labour.
Jagruthi Society, Assist-India, Call-Society.
The International initiatives.
National Resource Centre on Child Labour (NRCCL).
Trade Unions and their role.
Child labour and the Media.
M.V. Foundation and child education.
Working children organizations and other NGOs.
Multidimensionality of poverty and multiple poverty alleviation programs.
UNICEF supported programs on child labour.
UN supported programs bearing on child labour.
National Child Labour Project.
Initiation against child labour in India by NGOs and working children organizations.
CHAPTER – VI : CHILD LABOUR AND THE SOLUTIONS  ... 161 – 176
AT DOMESTIC LEVEL

The Executive power.
The Legislative power.
The Judiciary.
The activities of child labour.
The National Movement of working children.
Role of enforcement machinery and procedure for inspection.

CHAPTER – VII : NATIONAL CHILD LABOUR PROJECT  ... 177 – 185
(NCLP)- PRAKASAM

NCLP in Andhra Pradesh
Background
Implementation, legislation and enforcement
ILO-IPEC action program
Out-puts of NCLP.

CAPTER- VIII : RESEARCH FINDINGS, DISCUSSIONS  ... 186 – 281
AND TABULATION

Distribution and selection of sample size, Mandal wise.
Discussion on age-sex composition of child labour in the project area.
Discussion on category and family type and family size.
Discussion on occupation of parents and type of work of child labour and their impact on their social status
Socio-Economic structure and Political structure of the village and impact on families of child labour.
Discussion on education and literacy rate.
Implementation of the government programs on child labour eradication.
Knowledge of legislations by the families and the process of implementation of legislations.
Knowledge of Hazards in mine work by child labour and parents.
Discussion on working conditions of child labour.
Discussion on reasons of child labour.
Discussion on Habits of child labour.
Discussion on harassment of child labour during the work
Discussion on the problems of the families of child labour.
Discussions on the health problems and health schemes.
Discussion on other works of child labour.
Discussion on wages and expenditure of family and child labour.
Discussion on wage disparity between male and female labour.
Discussion on Indebtedness of child labour and families—Exploitation of money lenders and mine contractors.
Discussion on spending details of child labour.
Discussion on customs, functions, ceremonies.
Discussion on ambitions of child labour, opinion of children and parents on child labour.
Discussion on food habits and diet of child labour.
Discussion on facilities and sanitation system at mines
Discussion on child labour at slate factories
Discussion on Membership in Trade unions, political parties and societies
Discussion on Old Age pensions, schemes for old age people, facilities for pregnant women.

CHAPTER – IX : MEASURES RECOMMENDED TO COMBAT AND ERADICATION OF CHILD LABOUR

Child labour projects (NCLP) and Child labour project society (CLPS).
Velugonda Project and other programs of government.
Impact of social, political and economical measures in implementation and the response of people.
Markapur model, to reduce and prevent child labour.
Elimination of child labour through participation.
Integrated area specific approach against hazardous work and exploitation of child labour in project area.
Child labour reduction in Markapur slate industry through an active Tripartite Forum.

CHAPTER – X : SUGGESTIONS, RECOMMENDATIONS AND CONCLUSION

The major aspects on which the concentration is suggested.
Response of local people on child labour legislations and welfare measures.
Recommendations.
Conclusion.
CHAPTER – XI : CASE STUDIES-CHILD LABOUR AT THE MINES OF PROJECT AREA

Case study-1:- Girl child labour aged eleven years, working in the mine at Konakanmittla mandal and staying at Poola Subbaiah colony of Markapur.

Case study-2:- Male child labour aged thirteen years, working in the mine at Rayavaram area and staying at Rayavaram.

Case study-3:- Girl child labour aged twelve years working in mine near Tarlupadu mandal and staying at out skirts of Tarlupadu.

Case study-4:- Girl child labour, an orphan, aged thirteen years, staying at Ekalavya colony Markapur and working at slate factory at industrial estate, Markapur.

Case study-5:- Girl child labour, deaf & dumb, aged 15 years from Donakonda, working and staying at Naidupally mining area.

CHAPTER – XII : APPENDICES

CHAPTER – XIII : BIBILOGRAPHY

BAR CHARTS.