Appendices

Appendix-(II)

Learning Styles Test

NAME: --------------------------------- AGE: -----------------------------

GENDER: ----------------------------- CLASS: -----------------------------

SCHOOL: ----------------------------- DATE: -----------------------------

DIRECTIONS :

Please read the following statements carefully. Each statement has three options ‘a’, ‘b’ and ‘c’. Put a tick mark against that option which seems to apply to you. Please choose only one option for each statement.
1. When you read for fun, you prefer:
   a) A book that has lots of pictures in it.
   b) A book with lots of detailed descriptions.
   c) A book with crossword puzzles to be solved.

2. When listening to music, you:
   a) Visualize the song in your head.
   b) Listen to the lyrics and the beats of the music.
   c) Move with the music, or tap your foot.

3. You are not sure about spellings of a word, you would:
   a) Write down the word in a copy and look at it.
   b) Spell the word out loud again and again.
   c) Use your fingers to write the word in air.

4. When someone utters a word “Nature” before you, first of all:
   a) You imagine colorful flowers, beautiful creatures before your eyes.
   b) You hear the melodious sounds being made by birds, and leaves.
   c) You feel as if a cool breeze touches your skin while passing by.

5. When you work at solving a mathematical problem, you prefer to:
   a) Take a look of similar question, you have noted down in your copy.
   b) Recall the steps told by your teacher in the class.
   c) Start solving the problem on your own.

6. You need to remember a telephone number, you would:
   a) Look at the number for some time.
   b) Speak out the number loudly.
   c) Imagine the pattern of numbers in your head.

7. When you revise for an exam, you would:
   a) Write down the notes to again look at them later on.
   b) Read out louder so that you can hear.
   c) Practice writing the answer again and again.

8. When learning something new, you need to:
   a) Read books for getting knowledge.
   b) Listen to a lecture given by teacher.
   c) Try it out yourself.
Appendices

9. When you are trying to concentrate, you are most disturbed by:
   a) People and things you see around.
   b) Noises you hear around.
   c) Other sensations like hunger, or tight shoes.

10. When you are angry about something, what are you most likely to do?
   a) Put on your “mad” face.
   b) Shout and tell people how you feel.
   c) Slam doors and throw things.

11. When you are really happy about something, what are you most likely to do?
   a) Smile with joy.
   b) Shout with joy.
   c) Jump with joy.

12. When you think about what you did yesterday, you are most likely to get in your mind:
   a) An image of what you saw yesterday.
   b) Words which you spoke.
   c) Activities done by you.

13. What kind of teachers do you like?
   a) Who put a lot of diagrams on the board.
   b) Who spends a lot of time in explanation.
   c) Who provides practical experience.

14. If you are learning something new on the computer, how do you prefer to do it?
   a) By watching someone else do it.
   b) By listening to directions given by someone.
   c) By trying it out yourself.

15. Imagine that you have won any competition. The feedback which you may like the most is:
   a) Getting a written applause from your teacher.
   b) Getting verbal appreciation from your teacher.
   c) Your teacher giving a pat at your back.

16. You have just entered a science museum, you will first of all:
   a) Silently look at various things kept there.
b) Prefer talking side by side to your friends.
c) Try to perform science activities yourself.

17. You like websites that have:
   a) Interesting design and visual features.
   b) Audio channels where you can hear music, radio programs or interviews.
   c) Things you can click on, shift or try, like games etc.

18. When you tell your friend the location of your house, how do you do it?
   a) Draw the location in your copy.
   b) Explain the directions verbally.
   c) Point and use your hands to show the way.

19. You would prefer to join:
   a) An art & painting class.
   b) A singing class.
   c) A dance class.

20. You are going to choose any food item in your campus canteen, you would:
   a) Look at the menu and decide what to eat
   b) Listen to the waiter or ask friends to recommend choices.
   c) Choose something that you have had there before.

21. In a science lesson you are learning about the different parts of a flower. How do you prefer to find out?
   a) By looking at the diagram.
   b) By listening to your teacher telling you.
   c) By taking apart a real flower.

22. When you have to tell a story, you would rather:
   a) Give more stress on your facial expressions.
   b) Tell it out loud.
   c) Narrate it by using your bodily actions.

23. You prefer that homework in which you can:
   a) Do some reading task.
   b) Carry on some discussions with friends.
   c) Write any assignment or do some activity.
Appendices

24. In a class, usually, you tend to:
   a) Look carefully at the blackboard to understand the concepts.
   b) Listen carefully to what your teacher is saying.
   c) Write down the notes in your copy.

25. You tend to say:
   a) “show me”
   b) “tell me”
   c) “let me try”

26. Where would you like to go for spending your summer holidays?
   a) A place having natural beauty or a peaceful atmosphere.
   b) A place where you can do gossiping with your friends.
   c) A place where you can play any game.

27. When you are anxious, you:
   a) Visualize as if some bad incidence is going to happen.
   b) Talk over with yourself what worries you most.
   c) Can’t sit still, move around constantly.

28. You like other people because of the reason:
   a) You like the way they look.
   b) You like the way they talk.
   c) You feel good in their company.

29. How do you prefer to relax?
   a) By watching T.V. or reading.
   b) By listening to music.
   c) By doing some physical activity such as playing any game.

30. When you meet your old friends, how do you react?
   a) You say, “it’s great to see you!”
   b) You say, “it’s great to hear your voice!”
   c) You give them a handshake.

31. When you read, you often find that you:
   a) Visualize what you are reading in your mind’s eye.
   b) Read out loud or hear the words inside your head.
   c) Move around restlessly and try to “feel” the content.
32. When you write, you:
   a) Are concerned how neat your words appear.
   b) Often say the words to yourself.
   c) Push hard on your pen or pencil while writing.

33. If you had to remember a list of items, you would remember it best if you:
   a) You look at the list several times.
   b) You repeatedly speak over the list items to yourself.
   c) You move around in your room while recalling the items in your mind.

34. If you are waiting for someone, you prefer to:
   a) Look around, stare, or read
   b) Talk or listen to others
   c) Walk around, or move/shake your feet as you sit.

35. If your teacher was verbally describing something to you, you would:
   a) Try to visualize what she was saying.
   b) Enjoy listening and at times talk yourself.
   c) Become bored if her description got too long.

36. Having watched a film or television programme, what do you remember most?
   a) The scenes and what people looked like.
   b) What was said and the music
   c) What happened and how the characters felt.

37. If you want to find out how your friend is feeling, what do you do?
   a) Look at the expression on their face.
   b) Listen to them.
   c) Notice their movements and posture.

38. When you meet new people how do you remember them?
   a) Mostly by how they looked or what they wore.
   b) Mostly by what they said or their names.
   c) Mostly by things they did or how they made you feel.

39. You want to learn a sport that you have never played before. Which way is best?
   a) To watch a demonstration.
   b) To be told the instructions to play.
   c) You just go and do it.
40. Apart from price, what would most influence your decision to buy a particular textbook?
   a) Just looking through main pages of the book.
   b) A friend recommending the book.
   c) Your previous knowledge about the book.