ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

It is my great honour to express profound gratitude to my supervisor, Dr. V.K. Mahajan, Professor of Economics, Department of Evening Studies, Panjab University, Chandigarh, without whose guidance, constructive suggestions, keen interest and constant encouragement at every stage, this study would not have been completed.

My sincere thanks go to Professor M.R. Aggarwal, Department of Economics, Panjab University, Chandigarh for all his help, guidance and critical evaluation of the work. I am grateful to Dr. Upinder Sawhney, Chairperson of the Department of Economics, Professor A.C. Julka, Dr. Naveen Sharma, Dr. Indu Verma, other faculty members and office staff of the Department of Economics for their constant help and cooperation extended to me in more than one ways. I am also thankful to my colleagues Dr. P.K. Sharma, Dr. Usha Rani and Dr. Neeraj Jain of the Department of Evening Studies and other faculty members, who willingly provided me moral support and invaluable guidance during the period of this work.

I owe a great debt to the authorities of the Main Library, libraries of Department of Economics, Department of Law and University Business School, Panjab University, Chandigarh for readily providing me with necessary facilities for this thesis. I also express my appreciation for all those who have done allied research studies in India and abroad, for their works gave a positive direction to my research project.

I feel greatly beholden to my parents Late Dr. Asha Nand Vohra and Smt. Amarjeet Vohra, Parents-in-Law Late Sh. Nagarwasaya Makkar and Smt. Shani Devi, my husband Sh. D.K. Makkar and all my family members who helped me keeping in fine mettle, in times of great stress and striven.
I find it difficult to express a short acknowledgement for my kids – Keshav Makkar and Kuber Makkar, who endured long hours of my study with unimaginable spirit and patience, what more can a mother expect!

Last but not least professional skill and excellent piece of computer work on the part of Mr. Sanjay and Mr. Vicky too deserve my strong appreciation.

And no words of thanks can express my gratitude and reverence to Maa Bhagwati and Parampita (Almighty) for profuse blessings to complete this work.

Suman Bala Vohra
