Acknowledgments

I begin by my sincere and heart gratitude to my guide, Dr.S.S.Deshpande, who stood by me all this long and patiently, guided me throughout this long process.

For his patience, motivation, enthusiasm, and immense knowledge. I could not have imagined having a better advisor and mentor for my Ph.D study.

A network of social relations enabled this work; some impacted the research or writing directly. The research would have not been possible without their help.

I wish to humble myself with lot of gratitude towards Dr. Mahesh Deshpande who never hesitated his guidance and answered all my questions very patiently. His guidance helped me in all the time of research and writing of this thesis. I would like to acknowledge the contributions of all friends who kept their trust and faith in me to keep this journey going.

Last but not the least, I would like to thank my mother, Seyed Feyzeyeh Hosseini, without her continuous support and encouragement I never would have been able to achieve my goals. This one is for you mom!
