ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

This research was carried out by me with the help of many individuals and institutions. I am deeply indebted to my research supervisor revered Prof. K.S. Mathew, National Fellow of U.G.C., for his unfailing encouragement and constant help. His profound suggestions, discussions and corrections of the various drafts enabled me to bring out this work very successfully. I am grateful to him for his guidance and permission to make full use of his library at all times.

It is my pleasant duty to thank Dr.K.Venkatasubramanian, former Vice Chancellor of this university for the award of research fellowship for the period of eighteen months to carry out my research work in this department.

I am grateful to the Indian Council of Historical Research, New Delhi for the award of the research fellowship for the period of two years and a half without which I could not have completed this work.

I am very much thankful to Prof.A.R. Kulkarni, Vice Chancellor of Tilak Maharashtra, Videyapeet, Pune and to my beloved teacher Dr.(Mrs.) Indra Saxena, Department of History, Faculty of Arts, M.S. University of Baroda for their constant encouragement and advice during the period of my research.

I wish to record my thanks and gratitude to Mr. M. Ramasamy former Archivist of Pondicherry Archives and Dr. M. Pannirselvam, French Department, Pondicherry University for helping me to translate the important French documents.

I specially thank Mr. K. Rajaram, Curator of Pondicherry Museum, Mr. P. Anandaraj, Asst. Director of National Archives of India, Pondicherry, Mr. J. Raja Muhamad, Curator, Government Museum Pudukkottai and the authorities of Pondicherry Archives, French Institute, Ecole Française d'Estreme-Orient, Romain Rolland Library, Pondicherry, Cannimara Library, Tamil Nadu State Archives Madras, National Archives of India, New Delhi and Hansa Mehta Library, Baroda for providing necessary source materials for my research.

I express my gratitude to Rev. Fr. Frazer Mascarenhas, S.J., Prof. N.S. Gorekar, Asst. Director of Heras Institute of Indian History and Culture and V.P. Save, Director of the Royal Asiatic Society of Bombay for making available necessary and relevant documents during my visit in Bombay for data collection.
I am very much thankful to Rev.Fr.M.Sebastian, S.J. former Principal of St. Joseph's, College, Trichy for his constant encouragement and constructive criticism during the period of my work.

I am thankful to Prof. K. Kunasekaran, Government Arts College, Karur and my friend Dr.S.Jayaseela Stephen, Ecole Française d'Extreme-Orient for giving constructive suggestions.

I place on record my indebtedness to the former and present Staff of the Department of History for their timely help.

My friends Mr.M. Muthukannu, Mr.R.Sundarakrishnan, Mr. M. Annadurai, Mr. M. Vallathan and the Staff of RANK Computers extended their help in typing my thesis. My thanks are due to them.

I also wish to record my thanks and gratitude to my brother Shri.M. Periyaswamy and my sister Miss.M. Rajamani for the voluntary assistance.

I specially thank the Almighty for showering His blessings and mercy which gave the courage and strength to complete this work.
