Acknowledgement

Words are not enough to express my profound gratitude and reverence for my esteemed supervisor Dr. Pawan K. Kamra, Professor, Department of Public Administration, USOL, Panjab University, Chandigarh, who with his scholarly erudition and knowledge, imparted his valuable guidance to me. This research endeavor would not have been possible without his in-depth thinking and analytical approach. I am deeply indebted to him for nurturing my research aptitude and enriching this thesis in innumerable ways. I am extremely grateful to him for showing keen interest in the research work and providing me with the much needed guidance. It is worth mentioning here that his cool temperament and humble nature gave me liberty to bother him at odd hours.

I extend my heartfelt thanks to Dr. B. S. Ghuman, Professor, Department of Public Administration and Dean, Faculty of Arts, Panjab University, Chandigarh for his constant support and help during the completion of this research project.

I am also thankful to Dr. Sudhir Sharma, Chairperson, Department of Public Administration, Panjab University, Chandigarh for extending all the necessary support to carry out the research work in the department.

Thanks to all the members of teaching faculty and non teaching staff of Department of Public Administration, Panjab University, Chandigarh for their help and cooperation.

My special thanks are due to Dr. Daljit Singh, Principal, Dayanand Medical College and Hospital, Ludhiana and Dr. (Mrs.) Jasbir Kaur, Principal, College of Nursing, Dayanand Medical College and Hospital, Ludhiana, whose unconditional support helped me to sail through this arduous journey.

I am grateful to Medical Superintendents, Dayanand Medical College & Hospital, Ludhiana, Director, Christian Medical College & Hospital, Ludhiana, Medical Superintendent, ESI Hospital, Ludhiana, Chief Medical Officer, Civil Hospital, Ludhiana, for permitting me to collect data in the selected respective hospitals.

I am beholden to Dr. Inderjit Walia, Principal, National Institute of Nursing Education, PGIMER, Chandigarh, for her encouragement and support. She was a source of inspiration to me for completing this research work.

I am extremely grateful to the faculty College of Nursing, DMCH, Ludhiana for their support and help, especially Ms. Amandeep Kaur and Jasveen Kaur.
I would also place on record my utmost sincere thanks to all the respondents and staff of selected hospitals, who unhesitatingly provided all the information and were always enthusiastically ready to answer to all my queries without which it would have been impossible to bring this work to a successful conclusion.

I extend my thanks to librarian, secretarial and all other staff of Department of Public Administration, Panjab University, Chandigarh, for their constant support.

I express my warm love and gratitude to my grandmother (Mrs. Gyarshi Devi), mother (Mrs. Bhagwati Devi Sharma) and father (Sh. B. N. Sharma) for talking to me through the tough times and for providing me with unconditional love.

I extend thanks to my wife Mrs. Reena Sharma and my daughter Ms. Simon Sharma, for tolerating my endless weekends & vacations facing computer and providing me with all the support I needed to complete my goals.

I will be failing in my duty, if I do not express gratitude to my brothers Sh. K. K. Sharma and Sh. Dinesh K. Sharma, sister-in law Mrs. Poonam Sharma, my sisters Mrs. Saroj Sharma and Sunita Sharma, my mother in-law Sushila Sharma and father in-law Sh. Bhikham Chand Sharma, my niece Prashant Shekar Geel and Hind Kishor Geel. My friends Sharwan Kumar Dhaka and Mahipal Singh, Kulvir Kaur, Kuldeep Kaur and Manpreet Kaur, for their constant encouragement for completing this endeavour.

This list of expression of thanks no matter how extensive is always incomplete and inadequate. This acknowledges is no exception. Last but not the least my thanks are also due to all those who have been associated with this work but have not found their names in this acknowledge, I shall remain ever grateful for their assistance.

The GOD Almighty has always been kind to me and ceaselessly showered his blessings on me. During the course of this study umpteenth time I felt his presence around and it is thy power that I could complete this study.

A research work is never complete and is never without shortcoming I own the entire shortcomings in this work. However, I hope that suggestions made by me would be of some help to the policy makers, the planners, the administrators and the management in the providing a better quality patient care to citizens of this country.
