ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I am genuinely and deeply indebted to my supervisor Dr.(Mrs.) Pushpa Chaudhary, Reader, Department of Education, who guided me by giving invaluable help and inspiration throughout the course of this research work. Academic encouragement and friendly discussions with her helped me to overcome various difficulties that came up in carrying out this investigation from time to time.

I express my heartfelt gratitude to Dr. J.N. Joshi, Professor and Dean, Department of Education for his inspiring association with this research project. I have a deep sense of gratitude for Professor (Miss) Sudesh Gakhar for her ungrudging help and valuable suggestions throughout the progress of this study. My special thanks are due to Dr. Anand Bhushan, Chairman, Department of Education and Dr.(Mrs.) Asha Sethi, Reader in the Department for their ever willing help and cooperation in sorting out various issues in connection with this project that came up from time to time. A special mention must also be made of Professor Harish Sharma, the erstwhile Chairman of the Department for his constant encouragement.

A mention must also be made of my friends for their valuable and much needed encouragement in this research project.

To the young students from various colleges in Chandigarh who responded to my long and elaborate questionnaires happily and willingly, I express my sincere gratitude.
My special thanks are due to Mr. Tarun Chugh who typed out this thesis with care and efficiency.

The staff of the Centre for Computer Science and Applications deserve a lot of praise. Their instant and willing cooperation inspite of the heavy demands on them, helped me in tiding over the difficulties in the analysis of the data. My thanks are due also to the staff of the library of Panjab University for their help in locating the relevant literature.

A prominent place in the acknowledgements goes to my parents and my brother, who created conditions conducive to the completion of my work and showed immense patience in this respect.
