ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

At the outset I acknowledge gratefully the kind gesture of the authorities of the University of Pondicherry for providing me this opportunity. I sincerely record my thanks with reverence to my Research Advisor - Guide - Dr. L.S. Visvanath, Reader, Department of History, Pondicherry University, for his valuable guidance, suggestions and encouragement in preparing this dissertation. I express my heartfelt thanks to Dr. K.S. Mathew, Professor and Head, Department of History, Pondicherry University, who inspired me to work on this topic with his valuable suggestions. I record my thanks to the Director of Museums, Tamil Nadu for permitting me to undertake this task amidst my official works.

A few noted scholars in this field of study like Dr. S. Arasaratnam (Australia), Dr. M.N. Pearson, (Australia), Dr. Susan Bayly (U.K.) and Dr. G.V. Scammel (U.K.) readily responded to my request for their suggestions and I express my thanks to all of them. I am specially indebted to Dr. Susan Bayly, for constantly encouraging me with relevant informations with her vast research experience on Coromandel Muslims. I convey my thanks to Dr. Sanjay Subramaniyan, Delhi School of Economics for his valuable suggestions. Dr. M. Abdul Rahim, Professor of History, Government College, Tiruchirappalli (Retd), a noted research scholar on the Muslims of Tamil Nadu was very kind enough to offer his suggestions from his rich experience in this field. My sincere thanks are due to him.

I express my heartfelt thanks to the authorities of the Tamil Nadu Archives for giving me access to all the required records and books for my study.

My sincere thanks are due to the authorities of the libraries of University of Madras, Tamil University Thanjavur, Institute of Objective Studies, New Delhi, Jamia Millia Islamia University New Delhi, Pondicherry University, Bharathidasan University Tiruchirapalli, Nehru Memorial National Library New Delhi, Saraswathi Mahal Library Thanjavur, Islamic Studies and Cultural Centre Madras, French Institute of Indology Pondicherry, World Tamil Research Centre Madras, H.H. The Rajah's College Library Pudukkottai, The Mussalman Library Madras, District Central Library, Madras and Pudukkottai. I express my thanks to the District Collectors of Thanjavur, Thirunelveli, Ramanathapuram and Madurai for permitting me to peruse the records in their respective offices. I express my thanks to the Secretary, Transport Department, Government of Tamil Nadu and the Inspector General of Registration for having permitted me to peruse the records in the Ports and in the Registration Offices, in the State respectively. I express my thanks to Dr. Victor Rajamanickam, Department of Ancient Industry, Tamil University, Thanjavur for his valuable suggestions.
During my field work, I interviewed and discussed with a cross section of Muslims, specially a large number of Marakkayars. It will be too long to give the names of all such persons. However a few among them deserve mention here and I express my thanks to the following persons: Syed Mohamad (Hassan) Madras, (Late) Kavi Ka. mu. Sherieff, (Late) Mr. M.R.M. Abdul Rahim, Captain N. Amir Ali, Mohamed Sherieff, Advocate, Madras, Dr. Thaika Shuib Alim, Madras, Dr. S.M. Kamal, Ramanathapuram, M. Abdul Jabbar Marakkayar, Vedalai, Syed Ibrahim Marakkayar Vedalai, Syed Ali Marakkayar, Tondi, Idris Marakkayar Kilakkarai, MMS. Syed Ibrahim Marakkayar Kilakkarai, TSM. Thummani Marakkayar Rameswaram, Prof. M. Sayabu Marakkayar Karaikkal, Prof. Naseema Banu Karaikkal, A.K. Rifayee, Kottaram, Prof. M. Mohamed Nazar, Thirunelveli, M. Jaffar Mohaiadeen Marakkayar Nagore, Dr. M. Abdul Kareem, Adirampattanam, Mohamed Kasim Marakkayar, Mandapam (Mandapam Marakkayar), Jinna Marakkayar, Kayalpattanam, Sulaiman Marakkayar, Kayalpattanam, Maruff Marakkayar Kulasekarapattanam, M.K. Shaikuna Labbai, Kayalpattanam, S.M.A. Basheer Marakkayar, Kilakkarai.

I express my thanks to my office typist Thirumathi V. Vanjula for extending help in the preparation of the script of this dissertation.