ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I would like to express my gratitude to all those people who have contributed to the writing of this thesis and whose help I deeply appreciate.

It is extremely difficult to put into words the amount of obligation that I feel towards Dr. (Mrs.) Vidhu Mohan, my Guide and originator of this thesis itself. It was only because of her wonderful, painstaking efforts, constant encouragement, genuine interest, affection and most of all her dedication to research that this thesis was completed.

I owe a great deal to Dr. Jitendra Mohan, who was extremely patient and helped me whenever I needed his advice.

I am thankful to Dr. (Mrs.) H.K. Nijhawan, for providing all the necessary amenities during this research work.

I am grateful to the University Grants Commission for awarding me the research fellowship to take up this research.

I must express my thanks to all those personnel in the Police service who extended me help for carrying out data collection in the Tihar Central Jail, Delhi. I am especially thankful to the Superintendent of Tihar Jail and the inmates of that jail who were very cooperative during testing.

I am grateful to Dr. Durga Deulkar, Director, Lady Irwin College, Delhi, for allowing me to collect part of my data from the college.
I am indebted to Professor H.J. Eysenck, Dr. Daisy Schalling, Dr. M. Holmberg, Dr. P.K. Burgess, Dr. Ken Beskin and his colleagues, and Professor T.S. Shanaugam for sending me reprints of their papers which helped me considerably in this research project.

I must thank Mr. Bahl of the Computer Centre, Panjab University, Chandigarh, for his understanding and for providing all help in the computation of results.

My highest praise is due to Mr. Jagdish Bajaj of Panjab University Construction Office, who made a particularly painstaking effort to type my script.

I thank Dr. Dalip Kumar, Mr. Avinder Singh, Miss Surinder Kaur Gill and all those who offered me assistance during this research work.

I owe a great deal to my parents and parents-in-law without whose patience and encouragement this thesis would not have been completed.

My acknowledgements would be incomplete without mention of my husband Mr. P.S. Sodhi for his unfailing cooperation and positive attitude which made this thesis possible.
