List of Tables

Table 1.0 : Children’s Participation: from Tokenism to Citizenship------------------------64

Table 2.0 : Secondary Schools, 12th Standard Students’ Enrolment and Number of Teachers in Eastern Province, Kenya------------------------------------------110

Table 3.0 : Population and the Corresponding Sample of the Study------------------------114

Table 4.0 Summary of Research Methods-----------------------------------------------122

Table 5.0: Gender of Student Respondents-----------------------------------------------129

Table 6.0: Decision Making in Curriculum and Instructional Program-Students’ Response-----------------------------------------------130

Table 7.0: Participation in Decision Making on Students’ Management and Welfare-Students’ Response-----------------------------------------------133

Table 8.0: Participation in Decision Making in School-Community Relations-Students’ Response-----------------------------------------------136

Table 9.0 Whether Secondary School Students should be involved in Decision Making-----------------------------------------------138

Table 10.0 Students’ Perception on the Significance of their Involvement in Decision Making-----------------------------------------------139

Table 11.0: Adequacy of Students’ Involvement in Decision Making-Students’ Perception-----------------------------------------------141

Table 12.0: Structures used in Schools to Involve Students in Decision Making--------144

Table 13.0 Areas in Curriculum and Instructional Programs where Students wished to Participate more in Decision Making-----------------------------------------------146

Table 14.0 Areas in Students’ Management and Welfare where Students wished to Participate more in Decision Making-----------------------------------------------148

Table 15.0 Areas in School-community Relations where Students wished to Participate More-----------------------------------------------149
Table 16.0 Teachers’ school type-----------------------------------------------150
Table 17.0 Teaching experience of teachers---------------------------------------151
Table 18.0 Decision making in curriculum and instructional Program- Teachers’
Response--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------152
Table 19.0 Participation in Decision Making on Students’ Management and Welfare-Teachers’ Response------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------155
Table 20.0 Participation in Decision Making on School-Community Relations-
Teachers’ Response-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------158
Table 21.0 Decision Making in School Finance Management------------------------160
Table 22.0 Comparison of Students and Teachers’ Responses across the Management Tasks-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------163
Table 23.0 Whether Secondary School Teachers should be involved in Decision Making------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------165
Table 24.0 Significance of Teachers’ Involvement in Decision Making-------------166
Table 25.0 Adequacy of Teachers’ Involvement in Decision Making ---------------169
Table 26.0 Structures used for Teachers’ Involvement in Decision Making---------171
Table 27.0 Areas in Curriculum and Instructional Program where Teachers wanted to Participate More in Decision Making-----------------------------------172
Table 28.0 Areas in Students’ Management and Welfare and School-Community
Relation where Teachers wanted to Participate more in Decision Making--173
Table 29.0 Areas in School Finance Management where Teachers wanted to Participate more in Decision Making-----------------------------------------------174