ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I express my deep sense of gratitude to my esteemed Supervisor Dr. Satya Deva under whose competent guidance and affectionate encouragement I have been able to complete this work. I am greatly indebted to him for his kind behaviour, sympathetic attitude, rich experience and profound learning. His indefatigable fact finding zeal was a source of constant inspiration.

I am thankful to the entrepreneurs of Ludhiana District who co-operated with me by responding to my probing questions and also allowing me to examine their records, machines, stores and facilities such as toilets, and permitting me to interview their workers. I am also thankful to the workers who responded to my questions, sometimes at odd hours. I am also thankful to the trade union leaders of Ludhiana District who allowed me to question them on various aspects of the employment of workers and the trade union movement. I am also thankful to the Members of the Legislative Assembly from Ludhiana District for allowing me to question them.

I am thankful to a large number of officials at the Central, State and District levels for providing me with various documents including records, records such as proceedings of meetings and correspondence. They also provided me with a lot of information flowing from their experience. Many of them were interviewed by me repeatedly, and I gratefully recall that they gave me ungrudgingly of their time, often in the midst of urgent business. Among these were the Members of the Small-Scale Industries Board and officials working for the Development Commissioner, Small-Scale Industries, the National Small Industries Corporation, the Director General of Supplies and Disposals and the Labour Bureau, Ministry of Labour at the Central level.

At the State level, I was helped by officials working for the Director of Industries, Department of Planning, the Economic and Statistical Advisor, the Punjab Financial Corporation, the Punjab State Small Industries Corporation Ltd., the Controller of Stores, the Punjab State Electricity Board and the Labour Commissioner.

At the District level, the General Manager, District Industries Centre and officials including inspectors working for him helped me, sometimes even by accompanying me to locate the industrial units. I was also helped by officials and experts working for the Small Industries Service Institute, the Quality Marking Centres, the Industrial Development-cum-Service Centres, the Mechanical Engineering Research and Development Organization, the Central Food Technological Research Institute Experiment Station, the Industrial Training Institute, the Ludhiana Productivity Council, the Punjab Test House and the field officials of the Punjab State Electricity Board and the Labour Commissioner.

My thanks are also due to the headquarter, regional and field officials of banks such as the Reserve Bank of India, the State Bank of India, the State Bank of Patiala and the United Commercial bank.

I am also thankful to the librarians of the Ministry of Industry, the Development Commissioner, Small-Scale Industries, the Indian Institute of Public Administration, the Jawahar Lal Nehru University, the Reserve Bank of India, the Punjab State Civil Secretariat, the Department of Industries, the Planning Board, the Economic and Statistical Advisor to the Government of Punjab and the Panjab University for having helped me to obtain needed materials.

I am thankful to Prof. S.K. Sharma, Head of the Public Administration Department for having given me the facilities in the Department to complete this work.

My thanks are also due to the University
Grants Commission for providing me financial assistance and the Indian Council of Social Science Research for awarding me a short-term fellowship.

( SHASHI BALA )