ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

It is my pleasure to conclude my thesis in the beginning with my memories of the tough time of my Ph.D. work. I could not imagine to have worked without the support of various people from different spheres. The work would remain incomplete without acknowledging the help rendered by different people in accomplishing my task.

At the outset, I express my deep gratitude with reverence to Dr. H. Basker, former Member Secretary, Central Silk Board and Sri. H. Hanumantappa, Honorable Chairman, Central Silk Board, Bangalore who were kind enough to grant me the study leave for pursuing the Ph.D. degree programme. My task would not have moved without the blessings of Dr. S. B. Dandin, former Director, Central Sericultural Research and Training Institute, Mysore, who was kind enough to help in getting my study leave.

The masters behind my work are my guide Dr. B. P. Veerabhadrappa, Head of the Department, Department of Studies in Economics, Kuvempu University PG Centre Davangere and Dr. C. K. Renukarya, Professor of Economics and Director, Mahajana PG Centre, Mysore who wholeheartedly provided valuable guidance from initiation of the work till completion by spending their valuable time and attention. I remain indebted forever to them for their valuable guidance, moral support and more than that the love and affection bestowed on me which has inspired me to carry out my task more efficiently.

My work would not have completed without the support of Dr. S. M. H. Qadri, Director, Dr. S. B. Magadum Scientist-D and Sri. R. K. Subramanyam, Scientist-D of Central Sericultural Research and Training Institute, Mysore. I acknowledge their support with deep sense of gratitude.

I remain grateful to Dr. T. R. Manjunath, Chairman, BOS in Economics, Kuvempu University, Shankaraghatta, Shimoga for extending support and guidance during my study. I really enjoyed the pleasure of having support of Dr. K. B. Rangappa, Sr. Lecturer, Ms. Suchitra, Sr. Lecturer and all the staff of the Department of Studies in Economics, PG Centre, Davangere. The company of young research scholars Mr. Sandesh, Mr. Santosh, and Miss. Renukabai could throw my psychological age backwards to feel and work like a student. I express my thanks to them for supporting with necessary information and help during my Ph.D. programme.

The staff of Department of Sericulture, Government of Karnataka in different cadres and places of my survey work extended full support in data collection. I would like to thank the Deputy Directors of DOS Karnataka, Sri. Venugopal (Chitradurga Dist), Dr. K. B. Shanthamurthy (Kolar Dist.) and Sri. B.R. Haruguppa (Belgaum district) for extending their support. I thank the field staff of Belgaum, Chitradurga, Kolar and Mandya districts, DoS Karnataka for their kind support in collection of data. My special thanks to Sri. Mustaf Ali Khan, Asst Director of Sericulture, Department of Sericulture, MS Building, Bangalore who provided me up-to-date secondary data on sericulture at my request without any delay. I cannot ignore the help and moral support rendered by Sri. N. Y. Chigari, Deputy Director of Sericulture, Zilla Panchayat,
Mysore who shared the data and his field experience which has helped me to analyse and interpret my research data more meaningfully.

I take this opportunity to thank the staff of Central Silk Board in different places of my work. I owe my thanks to Sri Harlapur, Scientist-C, SSPC, Malavalli and Sri. B. T. Srinivas, Scientist-C, CSRTI Mysore (formerly REC Chitradurga) for extending their support during my field work. My thanks to Sri Evanath and Smt. Chinnamma, Technical Assistants, REC Maddur, Sri Mallanna, Technical Assistant, TSC, Belgaum, who accompanied me and assisted me for data collection. I cannot forget the full support of Sri. Srikantaswamy, Technical Assistant, K. M. Doddi, Malavalli during data collection in Malavalli Taluk of Mandya District.

The present work would not have attained its shape without proper technical guidance from the scientists of the premier sericulture institute i.e. Central Sericultural Research and Training Institute (CSRTI), Mysore where I am working. I acknowledge with deep reverence and respect to the Scientists, Dr. S. Nirmalkumar, Dr. M. Balavenkatasubbaiah, Dr. M. T. Himantharaj, Dr. P. G. Joge and Dr. G. V. Kalpana who shared their expertise that could help me interpret my results more meaningfully. The support rendered by Smt. Sandhya, Library and Information officer, CSRTI, Mysore who searched and downloaded voluminous literature from different databases for me really reduced my burden of work. I express my heartfelt thanks with reverence. I owe my special thanks to Dr. T. Thippeswamy, Scientist-D for his patient correction of the draft copy of my thesis and provided valuable remarks with technical competency. My thanks to my friends Smt. G. S. Geetha, Mr. H. Jayaram, Dr. G. Srinivasa, Mr. P. Kumaresan and Mr. H. M. Munikrishnappa for their support during my work. Further my thanks to Dr. H. Basavaraj, Prof. and Head, Dept. of Agric. Economics, UAS Dharwad, Dr. Vilas Kulkarni and Dr. S.S. Dolli, Asst. Professors of UAS Dharwad for their help during my Ph.D. work.

My regards to Dr. S. S. Patil, Assoc. Prof. of Statistics and Computer Science, UAS, Bangalore and Dr. Muddapur, Rtd. Prof. of Statistics, Karnataka University, Dharwad for their guidance in Statistical Analysis.

My work would have not taken its gear without the inspiration of my mother who helped me sitting long hours in compilation and feeding my research data. My son Arjun, is the source of inspiration whose smiling face fills energy in me in doing my work. I am grateful to my father, who was always helping me monetarily and provided full moral support for all walks of my research work. I deeply acknowledge the moral support with love provided by my sister Smt. Veena and my Mama Sri. Sharthkumar Pawate. I cannot forget the support rendered by my wife during my Ph.D. work. My respect and reverence to Dr. Devapriya Galagali, Mysore, Sri. Waddin and Prof. Hiregouder, Dharwad for their moral support during my study period. I acknowledge the support of my friends Mr. U. Ramakrishna, Mysore and Mr. Anilkumar Korishetty, Belgaum.

Last but not the least, I acknowledge all the persons who directly or indirectly helped me in completion of my research work.
