ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I deem it as my great fortune and wonderful opportunity to have Dr. P. M. Honakeri, Professor of Economics, Department of P.G. Studies & Research in Economics, Karnatak University, Dharwad, as my Research Guide. He has bestowed upon me everlasting Research guidance that helped me in the eventual completion of my doctoral thesis. He has taught me, trained me systematically, regarding the organization and thought-perspectives for the thesis work from, which, I believe would greatly benefit for my future aspiration. He has always been a cordial friend and mentor; without his great encouragement and constant guidance; I could not have finished this doctoral thesis on time. He was always there to meet and discuss about my missing ideas, for proofreading and mark-up my thesis write-up papers and draft Chapters. His unforgettable support, advice, courage and steadfast nature led me to complete this “Herculean task”, making of the process of research more an uphill task for the beginner.

I would like to express my thanks for all those who helped me and suggested me throughout my work. I am immensely grateful to all of them who have supported me at various stages of my doctoral thesis. I would like to extend my special thanks to my ardent supporters from Kuvempu University.
