ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I am deeply indebted to Prin. Dr. Rajesh S. Latane, Arts and Commerce College, Chakan, Tal.- Khed, Dist.- Pune., my research supervisor, who has inspired me for completing the present research work. He has ably guided me for completing the research work and always treated me as a member of his family and his affection has relieved me of every psychological burden.

There are seven novels of Alice Walker which are very complex to understand but the sharp insight and perfect guidance of Dr. Rajesh Latane helped me to overcome all the problems. Further, I express my gratitude for honourable, Prin. Nandakumar Nikam, C.T. Bora College and Director of the Research Centre, Shirur, Dist. Pune. He has provided me with academic, technical and moral support which is an invaluable memory for me. I am deeply indebted to Prin. Dr. Prakash Patil, CES’s Dr. A. B. Telang Sr. College of Arts, Science and Commerce, Nigdi Pradhikaran, Pune, for his encouragement and mental-moral support for my research work. My initial enthusiasm to do research became fruitful due to the encouragement, support, good spirit and compassion of my teacher, Dr. R. S. Jain, Head, Department of English, C.T. Bora College, Shirur, Dist. Pune., I express my deep sense of gratitude for him. I wish to convey my sincere thanks to Dr. Sudhir Nikam, member, BOS, Mumbai University, for his timely helps and continual concern and support. I would like to show my greatest appreciation to Dr. Ashok Chaskar, Dean, Faculty of Arts, Fine Arts and Performing Arts, Savitribai Phule Pune University. I am deeply indebted to Dr. Arjun Jadhav, Head, Department of English, Fergusson College, Pune, for his guidance and valuable support.
