TABLE OF CONTENTS

Introduction Cyberculture in Everyday Life

1. Concepts and Contexts

1.1 Technosociality
1.2 The Space of Technology
1.3 Cyborgification
1.4 Ecology of Fear and The Law

2. Chapter Division and Methodology

---

Chapter One Understanding Technosociality

1. The Technosocial

1.1 The Virtual-Physical Dialectic
1.2 Internet and Everyday Practices
1.3 The Social Order of Technology
1.4 Technologies of Social Order

2. Technosocial Subjects as Digital Natives

2.1 Technosocial Practices: Cultures of Fear
2.2 The Changing Political: Of Consumption and Piracy

3. Tying Things Together

---

Chapter Two Everyday Cyborgs: Technosocial as Resisting the Universal

1. Of Cyborgs

1.1 The Real Body and the Cyborg
1.2 Making of a Cyborg

2. The Case of the Cyborg

2.1 The Cyborg in Cyberspace
2.2 Cyborg Makers
2.3 The Social Cyborg

3. Everyday Cyborg as the Technosocial Subject

3.1 Everyday Cyborg: History, Technology and Subjectivity
3.2 Everyday Cyborg: Resisting the Universal

4. Building The Base
Chapter Three Technosocial Spaces

1. Technology and the City
   1.1 Unpacking Space-Place-Technology Triad
   1.2 Technology and the Ecology of Fear

2. Blurring the Boundaries
   2.1 The Anatomy of a Flashmob
   2.2 Smart Mobs
   2.3 At the Crossroads: India’s First Flashmob
   2.4 The flashmob, the flash-site and the legal order of things

3. Reconfiguring Technosocial Spaces

Chapter Four Subject to Technology: The lurker, the pornographer and the terrorist

1. Access and the Technosocial Subject
   1.1 Delhi Public School MMS: Access as Transgression
   1.2 The Lucknow Incident: Access, Virtual Reality, Real Life
   1.3 Digital Conditions: Access as Evidence

2. The Technosocial Condition

Conclusion The Technosocial Subject and New Conditions of Governance

1. Technosocial State and Conditions of Governance
2. Transaction of the Technosocial State
3. Notes for Building a Framework to Understand a Technosocial State

Bibliography

Index