ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

With deep sense of gratitude I express my wholehearted thanks to the authorities of Andhra University for permitting me to enrol and register in the Ph.D. programme of the Department of Education and all the facilities provided to carryout the research work.

I thank Prof. Nimma Venkata Rao, Dean, Faculty of Education for being a constant support, encouragement and inspiration in preparing the manuscripts of this thesis, reviewing the text, editing wherever necessary and providing invaluable advises during the long preparation process of the thesis.

I thank Prof. P. George Victor, I/C Vice-Chancellor, Prof. A. V. Prasada Rao, Rector and Prof. V. Uma Maheswara Rao, Registrar of Andhra University for all their encouragement and appreciation.

I thank Prof. D. Prabhakara Rao, Principal, College of Arts and Commerce, Andhra University for his encouragement and support extended and for all his concern and appreciation shown during the thesis submission.

I thank Prof. Gara Latchanna, Head, Department of Education and Prof. R. Ranganathan, Chairman, Board of Studies in Education for their continuous guidance, help, approval and inspiration through out the course of research.

I thank Prof. M. V. R. Raju, Professor, Department of Psychology and Para-Psychology, Andhra University for his association, guidance and support in the validation of the ABC tool in Telugu.

My expression of gratitude goes initially to Dr Giuliana Galli Carminati who helped me while thinking seriously for an appropriate concept-oriented title and for her invaluable suggestions that helped my research program into a reality. I thank Dr Marg Csapo for providing a sense of inspiration and who was ready to read the chapters I prepared, Fran Courson for her readiness in lending a helping hand to buy necessary books for my research program. I am short of words of gratitude for the invaluable support from around the world. Dr Clay Keller, Mary Gale, Kanji Watanabe, etc.

It is with profound sense of gratitude I thank Prof. P. V. G. D. Prasada Reddy, former Registrar and Rector of Andhra University for his encouragement, support and cooperation in completing the research work.
I sincerely thank Prof. Beela Satyanarayana, Former Vice-Chancellor, Prof. Myneni Krishna Kumari, Former Principal, College of Arts and Commerce, A.U. for their encouragement and support in granting admission into Ph.D. programme in adapting my long years of association and experience with the Lebenshilfe and Mentally Retarded students into a research oriented outcome.

I thank Prof. M. Syam Babu, Director of Physical Education and Secretary, Sports Board, Andhra University for being my God-given brother and constant encouragement and in giving a breakthrough for the write up of the thesis.

I am greatly indebted to Dr. S. Paul Douglas, Assistant Professor, Department of Engineering Chemistry, A. U. College of Engineering, Andhra University for his patience and kindness in assisting my attempts while formatting the Chapterisation of the thesis connected to content formation and for his comprehensive and insightful advises extended to bring this thesis in a most meaningful.

Many people contributed to the launching of this research and I am most grateful to all their efforts I sincerely appreciate all those who assisted me in the arduous task of assembling data.

- A special thanks to Dr. Ryo Takahashi, Japan.

- A million thanks to Federico Carminati, Dr. Roxanne K Gupta, USA

- I thank the following people that extended their whole hearted cooperation in completion of this ABC-C validation.

- The support provided by the Lebenshilfe colleagues while application of ABC Checklist dealing with parents is to be deeply appreciated.

Many people were instrumental in the preparation of this thesis. N.Sudharani, E. Jayasri, U. Parvthi Devi, T. S. N. Murthy, V.Mahalakshmi and many such other colleagues.

I would like to express a great deal of appreciation to all the special education teachers whose dedication and commitment supported me in working with the mentally retarded from the beginning till the end.
I am especially grateful for the cooperation extended by the Lebenshilfe staff members Mr. B. Pavan Kumar, Mr. Ramana Reddy (AU) for working with much enthusiasm and many parents and families who have given their valuable time to discuss about the aberrant behaviour disorders of their children at home and after school hours outside home.

I am thankful to the non-teaching staff and supporting staff of Department of Education, Andhra University for their help during my tenure of Ph.D. Programme.

I express my profound thanks to all those who extended invaluable suggestions, advises and guidance whom I met from various International conferences, seminars and workshops to improve Lebenshilfe’s on-going work for the benefit of mentally handicapped recovery and training.

My sincere gratitude goes to my spiritual Guru Dr. Raparti Rama garu and Guru Dr. C. Sadasiva Rao garu for extending their continuous blessings and moral support from the day I started the work till the day of thesis submission.

I profusely thank my brother Dr T. S. R. Murthy for his relentless and persistent efforts to encourage me to develop the text in relevance.

I wholeheartedly thank my husband Sri. Ayyagari Lakshmana Rao, for his constant and continuous flow of cooperation all these years.

I thank my elder daughter Lakshmi Gummuluri and her husband Krishna Gummuluri, younger daughter Jayasudha Uruma and her husband Chakri Uruma for their cooperation, support and love. I record special words of appreciation for my three grand children Mallika, Rohit and Anjali for not disturbing me when I was seriously working for my thesis preparation during their visits to India. I acknowledge the long hours of thorough proof reading of my thesis by my elder daughter Lakshmi Gummuluri.

Finally, I express my tribute with gratitude to my father Late Sri. T. Satyanarayana Murthy, Rtd. Head Master and Yogasana Specialist and mother Late Smt. T. Suryakanthamma, an orthodox woman who always fought with my father to arrange my wedding at the age of 8 years. My father, denying her suggestions, to make me as an individual with moral as well as economic strength and to stand on my legs and brought me up like Jhansi Lakshmi Bai (Warrior Queen of Jhansi) to become a useful person to the society, to act beyond to help people, people first, self next.
