ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I take this opportunity to express my deep sense of gratitude to my Research Supervisor Dr. B. Padmanabha Reddy, Lecturer, Department of Political Science and Public Administration, Sri Krishnadevaraya University, Anantapur for his valuable guidance and affectionate help throughout the preparation of this work. I owe him much more than what I can acknowledge.

I am thankful to Dr. P.W.Purusotham, Reader and Head, Department of Political Science and Public Administration for his perennial source of inspiration and his valuable suggestions from time to time.

This study would not have taken the present shape without constant love and affection and source of encouragement rendered by my Mother and Brothers. Words are insufficient to express my indebtedness to them.

I am grateful to my uncle Dr. B.Sada Siva Reddy, Head, Department of Commerce (Post-graduation Course), B.T. College, Madanapalli for his encouragement throughout my educational career.
I would like to express my deep sense of gratitude to Dr. C. Venkata Subba Reddy, Department of Political Science and Public Administration, S.V. University, Tirupati, who had been coming to my need at every point.

I would like to express my humble gratitude to my Aunty and Sisters-in-laws and Brother-in-law for their stream of love and blessings throughout my academic career.

I have also been benefitted greatly through my discussions with Sri B. Krupakar, Principal, Government Degree College, Dharmavaram and extend my personal indebtedness to him.

Thanks are also due to my co-research scholars Mr. A. Venkata Ramana, Mr. J. Veera Swamy, Mr. P. Harinath, Mr. V. Bali Reddy and Mr. S. Sankaraiah, who have provided substantial cooperation throughout the course of my study.

Last but not least I wish to thank Sri M. Venkatamuni Reddy for typing this thesis carefully and excellently.
