ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

At the outset, I whole heartedly express my deep sense of gratitude to my supervisor and guide Dr. S.T. SANGLE, Professor & Head Department of Economics Dr. BABASAHEB AMBEDKAR MARATHWADA UNIVERSITY, AURANGABAD, who is a constant source of inspiration in design and execution of this research effort towards its successful completion. But for his guidance and help, this thesis work could not have been completed. I owe a lot to him.

I am deeply indebted to Prof. Arjune D. S, Chairman, board of studies, Department of Economics, Dr. BABASAHEB AMBEDKAR MARATHWADA UNIVERSITY, Aurangabad, for his kind and constant encouragement at various stages of my work. I thank him a lot.

I take this opportunity to thank profusely for their invaluable suggestions in enriching the content and presentation of my Ph D thesis especially Professor V. B. Bishe, Professor V. B. Khandare, Dean, Faculty of Social Sciences, Dr. BABASAHEB AMBEDKAR MARATHWADA UNIVERSITY, Aurangabad, Maharashtra.

I would be failing in my duty if I don’t place on record my gratitude to my parents late Sri P. Chengaiah and Smt P. Subbamma who have introduced me to this world. They are responsible for the growth of this child in to an academic being. This research effort is the form of their blessings.

I thank my wife Panabaka Lakshmi, my daughters Chetana and Rachana for their affectionate enquiry about the status of my research work. They are instrumental for my studies and progress and gave me enough support, space and time to complete this research work.
I am deeply indebted to my brothers Ramanaiah, Mastanaiah, Venkaiah, and my sisters Ramanamma, Munemma and Manju Vani and my brothers- in-law Sri P.Venkataiah, Sri S V Munuswamy and Dr. P. Mohan Rao and my son – in – Law A. Raj Kamal IAS, who supported me in various stages of my life and played an instrumental role in my career growth. Their initiatives, direction, advice made me richly rich in academics. I profusely thank them.

In this context, I also take this opportunity to thank the respondents of my survey. But for their help, this research work could not have taken this shape.

Last but not the least; I would like to thank B.Vanitha for inputting her expertise, patience and time in ensuring a shape to this research document. However, I am solely responsible for the mistakes, if any, in this research effort.
