AKNOWLEDGEMENTS

This study could not have been completed without the constant encouragement and guidance of my research supervisor Dr. Birinchi K. Medhi, Professor of Anthropology, Gauhati University. Despite his busy schedule and other priorities, he was always ready to guide me and provide quick feedback required for my study. I take this opportunity to express my irredeemable indebtedness and thanks to him for all the support and guidance provided to me throughout all the stages of research work, which were very crucial for me to complete this thesis.

I could not have achieved this goal without the help and co-operation extended by the people of my research area. I must express my deep gratitude and heartiest thanks to all my respondents along with their family members for sparing their valuable time, answering my questions and sharing some private topics pertaining to the study. Their co-operation was most essential for the completion of this work.

I would like to acknowledge the support and help of Mr Suleiman Ali of Sutarpara Village, Pranoy Kalita and Jadav Kalita of Uportola Village, Munib Khakhlary and Jeetu Basumatary of Janaimari Village, Deepanjali Roy of Dohela Village, Kabita Rabha of Madang village, Hasim Ahmed, Pradip Rabha, Atul Rajbonshi, Birbol Boro, Surgya Swargiary and Dr. Natyabir Das of Dudhnoi area. I offer my sincere thanks to all of them for their immense help in collecting data during my field study.
I am indebted to all the faculty members and office staff of the Department of anthropology, Gauhati University for their inspiration, timely advice, and support given to me throughout the study period.

My thanks goes to Dr. Gopal Phukon, Principal of Dudhnoi College for giving me the opportunity to carry out this research. I must also appreciate and offer my special thanks to my Departmental colleagues of Dudhnoi College for their incessant encouragement and support.

I also owe to all my family members, particularly my father Late Mohidhar Gogoi, who always encouraged me to pursue research works after my post graduation. His inspirations were the guiding force for me to carry out this study.

Last but not the least, I extend my sincere thanks to all the individuals and institution whose names cannot not be included here for dearth of space but their cooperation and help will always be in count in this endeavor.
