ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

My grateful thanks to Professor Satya Prakash Singh of Punjab State Institute of Public Administration, Chandigarh, my thesis supervisor, whose guidance and kind encouragement enabled me to execute the present study. Almost all chapters bear the stamp of his scholarly guidance. My thanks are also due to Dr J.D. Singh, Professor of Marketing, Administrative Staff College of India, Hyderabad, for helping me at various stages of my research work.

I am grateful to Professor S. Neelamegham of Faculty of Management Studies, University of Delhi, Professor M.C. Kapoor of Department of Commerce, University of Delhi and Professor R.K. Patel of Division of Dairy Economics, Statistics and Management, NDRI, Karnal, for their valuable help whenever I requested for it.

I express my sincere thanks to Professor T.N. Kapoor, Dean, Faculty of Business Management and Commerce, Panjab University, Professor S.D. Tripathi, Chairman, Department of Commerce and Business Management, Panjab University and Professor B.N. Mehrotra, former Chairman of the Department, who made a vital contribution by creating a congenial atmosphere for research work at the Department.

I am thankful to the University Grants Commission, New Delhi, for providing me the Teacher Fellowship to pursue Ph.D. study. I must record my thanks to Sh S.S. Randhawa, Vice-Principal Incharge, S.G.T.B. Khalsa (Evening) College, New Delhi, who has been throughout very generous in granting me all kinds of necessary leave for this purpose.

-iii-
I gratefully acknowledge the assistance rendered by Sh B.S.Rattan of the Department of English, Khalsa College, University of Delhi, who dotted all my i's and crossed all my t's and by Sh Dildar Singh in typing this thesis.

Last, but not least, I am grateful to all the respondent families of Chandigarh for extending me honest cooperation.

Chandigarh : November 12, 1984. ( RAGHBIR SINGH )