TABLE OF CONTENTS

PAGE No.

PREFACE i-iii
ACKNOWLEDGEMENT iv-v
ABBREVIATIONS vi-vii

CHAPTER I DR.S.RADHAKRISHNAN:
THE MAN AND HIS THOUGHT
1.1 INTRODUCTION 1
1.2 RADHAKRISHNAN AND MADRAS
   CHRISTIAN COLLEGE 3
   1.2.1 Scholarships awarded by the College 6
   1.2.2 The Choice of Philosophy 8
   1.2.3 Subjects studied at the Department 10
   1.2.4 The Prizes Won 10
   1.2.5 Teachers of Radhakrishnan 12
   1.2.6 Initiation into apologetics 17
1.3 RADHAKRISHNAN:
   A MULTI-FACETED PERSONALITY 24
   1.3.1 An East-West Synthesizer 25
   1.3.2 A Neo-Vedantin 28
   1.3.3 An apologist of Hindu faith 30
   1.3.4 A Harmonizer of different faiths 33
CHAPTER II HISTORICAL INFLUENCES ON CHRISTIANITY ACCORDING TO RADHAKRISHNAN

2.1 INTRODUCTION

2.2 THE ORPHIC MYSTERIES

2.2.1 The Beliefs of Orphics

2.2.2 Orphic influence on Christianity

2.2.3 Indian influence on the Orphics

2.3 GREEK PHILOSOPHY AND CULTURE

2.3.1 Jewish Platonism

2.3.2 Gnosticism

2.3.3 Neoplatonism

2.3.4 Christian Platonism

2.4 THE ESSENISM OF PALESTINE

2.4.1 The Essene beliefs

2.4.2 ‘Essenism affected John the Baptist and Jesus Christ’

2.4.3 ‘Essenes are possibly Buddhists’

2.5 THE BOOK OF ENOCH

2.5.1 The Book of Enoch and the Upaniṣads

2.6 THE MITHRAISM

2.6.1 Mithraism and Christianity

2.6.2 ‘Mithraism had the Vedic Origin’

2.7 ROMAN LAW AND ORGANIZATION

2.7.1 Roman influence in organizing Christianity

2.7.2 Eastern influence on Rome

2.8 CHRISTIANITY AND HISTORICAL INFLUENCES : AN EVALUATION

2.8.1 Essenism - Its Sources

2.8.2 Were Essenes Buddhist Communities?
CHAPTER III RADHAKRISHNAN'S TREATMENT OF
THE DOCTRINES RELATED TO
JESUS CHRIST AND CHRISTIANITY

3.1 INTRODUCTION 63
3.2 THE DOCTRINE OF INCARNATION 66
3.2.1 What is an Avatar? 67
3.2.2 'Jesus is not a unique avatar' 68
3.2.3 'Any one can become Christ-like' 70
3.2.4 Incarnation: A Response 71
3.3 THE DOCTRINE OF LOGOS 78
3.3.1 'Logos is a Greek doctrine' 78
3.3.2 'Logos is not a monopoly of Christians' 79
3.3.3 Logos: A Response 81
3.4 THE PERSON OF JESUS CHRIST 85
3.4.1 'Jesus was more human than Divine' 85
3.4.2 'Jesus nurtured political ambitions' 86
3.4.3 'His Divinity is a dogma' 88
3.4.4 The Person of Jesus Christ: A Response 90
3.5 THE DOCTRINE OF SALVATION 94
3.5.1 'Salvation is inner transformation' 94
3.5.2 'Salvation is gained through personal effort'

3.5.3 'Saviour is not one, but many'

3.5.4 'Universal Salvation is inevitable'

3.5.5 Salvation: A Response

3.6 THE DOCTRINE OF ATONEMENT

3.6.1 'Atonement is an obstacle between Hinduism and Christianity'

3.6.2 'Guilt cannot be transferred to a substitute'

3.6.3 Atonement: A Response

3.7 RESURRECTION OF JESUS CHRIST

3.7.1 'Resurrection is a symbolic act'

3.7.2 'Easter is not a commemorative event'

3.7.3 Resurrection: A Response

3.8 THE DOCTRINE OF REVELATION

3.8.1 Two types of revelation

3.8.2 Is any revelation final?

3.8.3 Revelation: A Response

3.9 THE DOCTRINE OF THE TRINITY

3.9.1 Historical development of the doctrine

3.9.2 Trinity and Trimurthi

3.9.3 Trinity: A Response

3.10 THE DOCTRINE OF ESCHATOLOGY

3.10.1 'Heaven and Hell are not places, but states of self'

3.10.2 Kingdom of God and Brahma-loka

3.10.3 Eschatology: A Response

3.11 CONCLUSION
CHAPTER IV RADHAKRISHNAN'S CRITIQUE OF
THE DOGMA OF THE CHURCH

4.1 INTRODUCTION 140
4.2 ORGANIZED RELIGION:
ITS DRAWBACKS 141
4.2.1 'Failure in Social Obligations' 142
4.2.2 'It is a source of intolerance' 142
4.2.3 'It opposes reason' 143
4.2.4 'It breeds a mechanical society' 143
4.2.5 'It has lost all its sacredness' 144
4.3 DOGMA: ITS INFLUENCE ON
THE CHURCH 144
4.3.1 The Nature of Dogma 146
4.3.2 'Freedom and Progress hindered' 147
4.3.3 'Dogmas breed intolerance' 148
4.3.4 'Dogma is not essential for salvation' 149
4.3.5 'Spiritual experience cannot be dogmatic' 150
4.3.6 A Brief Evaluation 151
4.4 ECCLESIASTICAL AUTHORITY:
ITS FAILURES 153
4.4.1 'Religion is a personal discovery' 153
4.4.2 'A priestless religion is desirable' 155
4.4.3 'Authority curbs the freedom of an individual' 156
4.4.4 Authority distrusts reason 157
4.4.5 'Belief in authority produces despots' 157
4.4.6 'Authority fosters intolerance' 158
4.4.7 'Founders of religions rejected authority' 159
4.5 SCRIPTURE: ITS PLACE AND ROLE IN RELIGION 160
4.5.1 'Worship of scripture is greatest idolatry' 160
4.5.2 'Truth transcends scripture' 161
4.5.3 Radhakrishnan and demythologizing 163
4.5.4 A Brief Evaluation 165
4.6 RELIGIOUS SYMBOLS HAVE NO INTRINSIC VALUE 166
4.6.1 'Symbols have only instrumental value' 166
4.6.2 'Symbol is a signpost, not destination' 167
4.6.3 A Brief Evaluation 169
4.7 PROSELYTIZING IN ORGANIZED RELIGIONS 170
4.7.1 'Convert feels like an illegitimate child' 171
4.7.2 'Proselytizing endangers the spirit of religion' 173
4.7.3 The Missionary zeal 173
4.7.4 A Brief Evaluation 175
4.8 CONCLUSION 177

CHAPTER V RELIGIONS AND 'THE RELIGION OF THE SPIRIT'

5.1 INTRODUCTION 178
5.2 THE NATURE OF TRUE RELIGION 180
5.2.1 What is true religion and what is not? 181
5.2.2 'Truth is highest and Greatest' 182
5.2.3 'Truth is inward rather than outward' 184
5.2.4 Who is a Truth-Seeker? 186
5.3 RELIGIOUS EXPERIENCE AS THE ESSENCE OF TRUE RELIGION 186
5.3.1 The nature of religious experience 186
5.3.2 'Truth arises out of encounter with the Divine' 188
5.3.3 'Religious experience effects 'Rebornness' 189
5.3.4 ‘Mystics have a family likeness’ 190
5.4 UNITY AMONG RELIGIONS 192
5.4.1 Impediments to unity 193
5.4.2 Similes to describe unity 195
5.4.3 Basic requirements to unity 196
5.5 FAITH - FELLOWSHIP OF FAITHS 198
5.5.1 Meaning of Fellowship 199
5.5.2 Samanvaya or harmonization 201
5.5.3 Recovery of faith 201
5.6 RELIGION OF THE SPIRIT 202
5.6.1 ‘In the spirit of the Vedanta’ 203
5.6.2 ‘Spirit in man is a treasure to be dug up’ 204
5.6.3 Sanatana Dharma or Eternal Religion 206
5.6.4 Radhakrishnan's Progress towards 'Religion of the spirit' 207
5.7 CONCLUSION 208

CHAPTER VI A CRITICAL ESTIMATION OF RADHAKRISHNA VIEWS ON CHRISTIANITY

6.1 INTRODUCTION 210
6.1.1 What his Christian critics feel? 210
6.1.2 Two reasons for his interpretation 211

6.2 THE UNIQUENESS OF JESUS CHRIST 213

6.2.1 Two approaches to the Person of Jesus Christ 214

6.2.2 Jesus of History and the Christ of Eternity 215

6.3 DOCTRINES OF CHRISTIANITY 216

6.3.1 Influence of Liberal theologians 216

6.3.2 ‘Christian Scripture misinterpreted’ 217

6.3.3 ‘Using of double standards’ 219

6.3.4 Is Radhakrishnan a theologian? 220

6.4 THE DOGMA OF THE CHURCH 223

6.5 THE UNITY BETWEEN RELIGIONS 224

6.5.1 Are all religions equal? 225

6.5.2 Can mysticism provide a platform? 227

6.6 RADHAKRISHNAN’S POSITIVE CONTRIBUTION TO CHRISTIANITY 228